

Charges against James Barton are dismissed

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Charges of bribery, conspiracy and official misconduct against Madison County Supervisor of Assessments James Barton of Granite City were dismissed by a judge Wednesday on grounds of "prosecutorial misconduct" by State's Attorney Don Weber, who said he will appeal the decision.

In a strongly-worded, nine-page order Chief Associate Judge Edward Ferguson contended that Weber had prejudiced the case by making statements to the press and at public gatherings about Barton.

Weber said he was "appalled" by Ferguson's decision, but added that he would continue to seek prosecution against Walter "Shang" Greshouse of Granite City on charges of bribery, failure to report a bribe and official misconduct stemming from the same alleged incident for which Barton was indicted.

Pretrial publicity tainted the Barton case so much that a fair trial would have been impossible, Ferguson ruled. "The actual and substantial prejudice occurs in trying to get a jury free from prejudice, much less prior knowledge. As honestly as a juror may answer, it is hard to put aside some feelings about the defendant," he said in the order.

Judge Ferguson cited specific examples of comments made by Weber and employees of his office that Barton's attorney, J. William Lucco of Edwardsville, presented at the hearing to dismiss the charges. Those comments included Weber's opinion that Barton was guilty and the prosecutor would "get" him, and comparisons of the official to a convicted sex offender.

According to the Canons of Ethics, prosecutors are not to publicly state their personal beliefs about a defendant, Ferguson said.

"People must remember the great authority which is vested in the state's attorney and the great impact his words have on the public," Judge Ferguson said in the order.

Weber said the statements he made were retaliation for public comments by Barton, but Judge Ferguson ruled that Barton's comments were made when he was questioned by the news media, who learned that the official was the target of a grand jury investigation. Even when Barton stopped talking to the media, Weber continued to make comments, the order said.

The judge also directly addressed comments made about him that he was "not his (Weber's) favorite judge," nor "a friend of the prosecution," the "friend" comment, he said, "brings the entire judiciary of the county into disrepute by intimating judges are either 'friends or foes' of different parties before the court."

Central Hardware will reopen; Tri-Mor closed

Central Hardware corporate officials in Bridgeton, Mo., announced yesterday that the Granite City store in Crossroads Plaza, damaged by a tornado May 1, will reopen within three to four months. Tri-Mor Bowl, however, also heavily damaged by the tornado, will not reopen, a spokesman there said.

Damage to Central Hardware was substantial, but a total has not yet been calculated because contractor's bids are not complete, said Gene Howenstein, vice chairman of the board for Central Hardware. "There was substantial damage to both the building and to inventory," he said.

The entire back section of the structure must be rebuilt and Howenstein said that another big storm could bring the rear wall down. The roof also has to be completely replaced.

Presently, the building is being guarded to keep people away.

He said rumors that the store had been sold to a discount chain are not true. It will reopen as Central Hardware within 90 to 120 days, he said. Some employees will be asked to work next month restocking the store, the Press-Record has learned.

The decision not to reopen Tri-Mor was made last week, according to a spokesman for the office of Carl Ruckert, Brunswick Recreation Centers St. Louis district manager. Approximately 40 persons lost their jobs with the closing of the local bowling alley.

Officials from the BRC division office in Skokie, Ill., inspected the local facility and James Buick, division general manager, announced the building will not reopen.

It is not known what BRC plans to do with the building, the spokesman said.

About 30 people are employed at the local office. Two presently remain on the payroll and it is not known if employees will be transferred. "Anything's possible," the spokesman said.

Damage estimates from the tornado are not completed, but continue to mount. Another plant has been added to the list of damaged structures with $150,000 of destruction reported by Shasta Beverage Co. on Missouri Avenue, south of J. D. Smith Corp., Shasta officials said this week.

The entire roof was blown off a warehouse, a small building containing parts was "demolished" and assorted "small damages" was done when the twister hit the company grounds, according to Norman Klaas, Shasta plant manager here.

One day of production was lost due to storm damage, he said. There were no injuries.

Urban League honors to 5

With the current shaky economy, "small contributions" have been the mainstay of the Madison County Urban League, which celebrated its sixth anniversary Monday night with a dinner at the Washington Ballroom.

While he commended those who have contributed time and money to the league, Executive Director Willie Walker told the 310 people at the dinner that, "We all need to do more."

Acknowledging the work of private corporations that have assisted the Urban League, Walker said, "We ask you to take these examples and follow these examples. Hopefully, we'll make this work a little easier for all of us."

Walker also thanked his staff, "all eight of them," who work at the league's main office in Alton. The staff of women spent Mother's Day preparing the ballroom for the dinner.

John E. Jacob, president of the National Urban League, was the guest speaker and he also urged increased participation among league members and citizens to further the cause of minority rights. (Highlights of his speech appear in a separate story in today's Press-Record.)

Commendations were an important part of the evening with four special awards—three to Quad-Cityans—being presented and one surprise award going to a retiring board member.

Ted G. Rowe, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the five awards to Ada Turner, Chester "Bud" MacMillan, Gene McGovern, Ruben Williams and Jim Goodwin.

Mrs. Turner, of Venice, is the founder and president of the Prison Outreach Group, an organization which works with juveniles, prison inmates and former offenders, many of whom served time in the Menard Correctional Center in Chester, Ill.

The mother of 14 children, Mrs. Turner tearfully accepted her plaque and thanked the league for the presentation. Walker called the presentation, "the highlight of the evening."

MacMillan, of Granite City, is the executive director of Coordinated Youth Services here and was honored for 20 years of work in providing comprehensive youth services and nutrition programs for children and mothers to be.

McGovern, of Granite City, is the director of the Apprenticeship Outreach Program. He was commended for his assistance to minorities and women in construction trades.

Williams, an Alton resident, is the executive director of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission. He was honored for his work in providing energy and weatherization assistance and child development services to the poor, particularly in the Head Start Program.

Jim Goodwin, also of Alton, who is retiring after 13 years on the league's board of directors, was presented with a pair of brass anchors for his "very stable, steady influence."

Poker machines banned in GC

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer jointly announced yesterday that electronic card game machines such as "Draw Poker," "Double Up" and "Winner" will "not be tolerated" in establishments in this community.

"These are clearly illegal machines and, as far as we know, all have been moved out of local business places," Chief Veizer stated Monday.

He noted that proprietors of Granite City taverns and other places in town where machines were known to be operating were warned about three weeks ago to get the electronic games out.

"We will not allow the games in. We are going to be checking and they (the machines) will be seized if found," Chief Veizer pledged.

A person commits gambling when he plays a game of chance or skill for money or other thing of value, the police executive said. There have been recent convictions and fines for those using the machines, he added.

Basically, the machines the city is trying to ban deal a hand of cards to the player and he discards and plays his best poker hand. Good hands win free games and some taverns allegedly have been paying the player 25 cents, or something of value, for each game won. The machines themselves do not pay winners, except with free games for good scores.

Some owners contend the games are as legal as Pac Man or any other popular video game. Only if the tavern owner pays off for a specific score does any of the machines become used for illegal gambling.

Seizing the games, they say, is as illegal as taking a person's deck of cards away, since cards also can be used for illegal gambling.

Cautious optimism on sewer repairs

As much as $200,000 in newly-released Madison County Community Development (CD) money may soon be available to repair multiplying breaks in underground sewer lines here.

The city now is hopeful that it will be able to convince the federal government to make at least $65,000 in disaster funds available for the sewer line problems here.

That was the cautiously optimistic report Mayor Paul Schuler delivered to aldermen last week at the same time they heard that damaged lines already have cost the city $95,000 in overtime work and pumping operations.

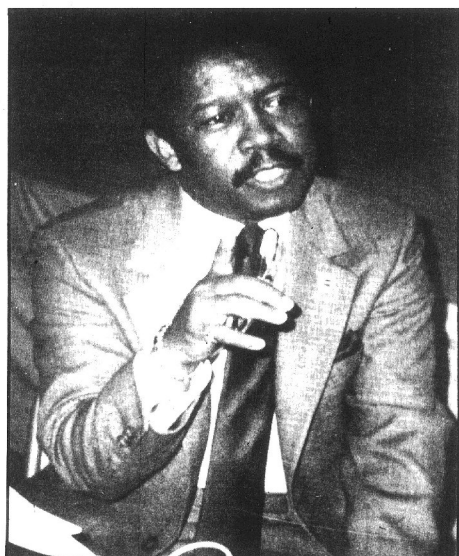

Schuler addressed the council members in a special session he called after returning from Washington, D.C., where he tried to convince Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) officials to help the city with its sewer repair expenses.

The costs of repairing the city's 17 sewer breaks have varied from $400,000 to more than one million dollars.

An aide from the office of U.S. Senator Alan J. Dixon (D-Illinois) told Mayor Schuler that the city could be eligible for a portion of $1.1 million in Community Development Funds going to Madison County for labor-intensive projects.

One possible hitch as the city's eyes a $200,000 portion of the funds is a past (Continued on Page 20)

JOHN JACOB, president of the National Urban League, tells county league members and guests that the Reagan Administration must change its philosophy about programs for minorities and the poor.

Reagan policy must change, Jacob says

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Because of cutbacks imposed by the Reagan Administration, minority groups are losing basic programs implemented to assist them in special need areas and the cuts have turned "the drive for equality into a struggle for survival," according to John Jacob, president of the National Urban League.

Jacob spoke Monday night at the Madison County Urban League's sixth anniversary dinner in the Washington Ballroom and the news he conveyed was grim.

Unemployment statistics, particularly among blacks, prove the need for a comprehensive program designed to retrain and redirect the nation's jobless, he said. Identifying unemployment as the leading national problem, Jacob described the economy, in view of statistics, as a "depression."

Before the dinner was formally underway, Jacob spoke with reporters about the Urban League and the assortment of problems facing blacks and minorities.

Not only are the unemployed being forced to deal with joblessness, they now must continue their lives "without many services" previously available to them, he said.

"This country is used to seeing traditional unemployment," he added. Unemployment previously was prevalent among the unskilled and poor, but now the country is seeing more skilled blue-collar workers and college graduates who cannot find jobs.

There are about 11 million unemployed people in the U. S. and seven million more who are not counted in that figure because they are "discouraged jobless" who no longer seek employment.

For blacks, the percentage of unemployed is even more startling, he says. With 20.8 percent of adult blacks unemployed and a 50 to 70 percent rate for teenagers, and considering total national statistics, Jacob said he believes the administration must seek a comprehensive program to assist the jobless.

"(Unemployment) transcends race, sex and class," he said and added that the problem is "significant, critical, crucial."

The Urban League has initiated a proposal for a Universal Employment and Training System consisting of four areas that could alleviate the unemployment problem, Jacob told reporters and later outlined the program for the audience.

A public works plan would be created to rebuild the nation's infrastructure, including roads, bridges, sewer and water systems, port facilities, railroads and housing. While the plan would create new jobs, it also would improve industry conditions.

"You can't build bridges without steel," Jacob said.

Secondly, the plan would implement a public service job program creating local employment like school aides, police aides, library attendants and hospital workers. The Comprehensive Employment & Training Act (CETA) was eliminated "just at the time it was becoming important," Jacob said.

The third area would include rewards for the private sector to provide incen-

Doctors' Dialogue

Dear Doctor,
About a year ago I had a (TUR) Trans Urethral Resection of the prostate and since, the doctor has had me undergo periodic bone imaging and biopsy tests. Now what I want to know is how can X-raying the bones of the body tell if the malignancy has been arrested? Isn't overexposure to X-rays conducive to the malignancy? Also, how can the male hormone be curtailed other than an orchiectomy? Has the surgeon the right to do further procedures that he deems necessary during an operation?
H.R.P.

Dear H.R.P.,
I assume from your letter that your surgery was performed because you were diagnosed as having cancer of the prostate. The bone imaging and blood tests are probably being done as a follow-up to be sure that the cancer has not spread.
Bone imaging is a very diagnostic tool that often indicates the presence of cancerous cells before the cancer can be detected by other methods. This X-ray procedure uses very small doses of radiation and will not cause cancer.
In regard to your question about curtailing the production of the male hormone, the only way to do this is to remove the testes.
Before surgery, the procedures to be performed are spelled out on the consent form that you sign giving the surgeon permission to operate. If during surgery, the surgeon discovers a problem that could be taken care of at a less risk to the patient than waiting to do another surgery, the surgeon may take care of it. Usually, however, the only surgical procedure done is that which is stated on the consent form.

County Amateur Art Show opens Friday

By GERALDINE L. BOWER
U. of I. Extension Adviser
Looking for an enjoyable, yet inexpensive weekend activity? Then plan to visit the Madison County Town and Country Amateur Art Show at the Fox-Arena in Koxana Park, 2 Park Drive in Koxana.
According to Eva Meadows, Granite City show chairman, the show officially opens Friday, May 13, with the jurist's critique for the artists from 6 to 8 p.m. It continues Saturday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 15, 1 to 4 p.m. Admission to the show is free.
This year's show features approximately 210 original works by 45 local artists in a variety of media. Those visiting the exhibit will have a chance to enjoy paintings, drawings, photographs, woodcarvings, sculpture, and other original works. A highlight of the show will be the use of new hanging standards attractively arranged in a spacious setting.
Works entered in this year's show will be judged by Dr. Walter Johnson, Professor of Art (emeritus) at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.
Works winning blue ribbons in the local competition will be eligible to participate in the regional show June 3 to 5 at St. Clair Square Mall in Fairview Heights. Works that receive blue ribbons in that show then will be eligible for the state Town and Country Amateur Art Exhibition to be held next fall in Urbana.
The Town and Country Amateur Art program is sponsored by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, the Cooperative

Burglary attempt at Eagles Lodge

A 15-year-old Granite City youth found on the roof of the Eagles Lodge, 258 Madison Ave., during the weekend, was held for investigation of attempted burglary and a curfew violation until being released to his parents on notice to appear for a hearing.
Officers went to the building after learning someone was on the roof. The youth allegedly would not show himself and it then was noticed that a glass pane was missing from a window convenient to the roof.
Police summoned a fire truck when the person could not be removed from the roof, but, prior to the truck's arrival, the youth appeared in view and scrambled down a pipe at the rear of the building, where he was taken into custody.
A check was made for another person believed to be on the roof and a search was conducted inside the building. No one else was found on the premises and it appeared nothing was missing from inside, police said.

VENICE BURGLARY
Elizabeth Hayden, 814 Third St., Venice, reported a burglary at her home last week in which a color television, a stereo and two speakers and an eight-track tape player and two speakers were stolen. Entry was gained through a porch window, but objects were found broken off in two door locks also, reports noted.

Park plans trip to Eureka Springs, Ark.

The Granite City Park District is planning another trip to Eureka Springs, Ark., on June 24, 25 and 26. "This proved to be one of the most popular trips taken last year and so many requests have been made to go again that a second trip was planned," David Nolan, director of parks and recreation, said.

Eureka Springs is often referred to as "Little Switzerland" due to many of the homes being built on the side of the mountains with one entrance being on one street and the other entrance on a different one. It is listed in Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" as one of the 10 most unusual towns in America. There are 232 streets with no cross streets or stop lights, 62 springs within the city limits and a million trees within one airline mile of the post office.

One of the highlights of the area is the Great Passion Play that will be attended by the Park District group on Friday evening. On Saturday evening, they will attend the Pine Mountain Jamboree.

Arrest 5th man in alleged ring

After receiving a teletype message from the Fairview Heights Police Department last week in reference to an active warrant, alleging residential burglary, against Richard M. Wilson, 43, of 2006 Washington Ave., local officers were unable to locate the suspect immediately.

Upon learning police were looking for him, however, Wilson called the department and agreed to meet officers outside his residence, where he was taken into custody.

Wilson entered no plea in an appearance in the Granite City court. Bond was set at $9,500 cash and he was released to Fairview Heights Police Department.

Wilson allegedly is the fifth man in a burglary ring which operated in Madison and St. Clair counties. Two Granite City men, Darryl Kuehnle, 20, and David Kuehnle, 18, already have been sentenced in the case, and Jerry Nishke, 37, is awaiting completion of a presentencing report.

Martin E. Giampie Jr., 22, of Granite City, charged with two counts of burglary, is scheduled to be sentenced. In the same case, Gary Lee Askew, 28, of Edwardsville, charged with nine counts of burglary, has been sentenced to a 12-year prison term.

A total of 207 auto and residential burglaries in Granite City alone was cleared with the suspects' arrest.

Discuss education's role in economic development

Belleville Area College President Bruce Wissore is leading a discussion of education's role in economic development today at a symposium sponsored by the state.

The Symposium, which is at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will deal with the role of education, business and labor in economic development. Wissore chaired the session this morning, titled "Perspectives on the Role of Public Education in Economic Development."

In addition to looking at education, sessions investigate training programs, education and financial stress, and regional economic development initiatives.

The keynote speaker for the symposium was James Anderson, executive director of the Illinois Commission for Economic Development. Other speakers were: David Pierce, executive director of the Illinois Community College Board; Robert Maxwell, general supervisor of training and development at the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp., and James Sanders, president of the Illinois Association of School Boards.

BAC is active in economic development through vocational instruction and works with local industry to develop specialized training programs.

The college provides free office space to the regional economic development office of the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs. This office works with local industries and cities to aid existing businesses and attract new ones to the area.

Dr. Vasileff to be saluted

Three persons who have worked to encourage and preserve Slavic and East European cultures and traditions in the St. Louis metropolitan area will be honored Saturday evening, May 14, at the 18th annual conference of the Slavic and East European Friends (SAEEF) of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Dr. Vasileff of Granite City, Mrs. Ann D. Lusick of St. Louis and Stanley B. Kimball of Florissant will be recognized during the awards program, beginning at 8 p.m. in the University Center.

The program will be preceded by dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Center's Redbird-Hickory Rooms. Scheduled to speak at 7:45 p.m. is Wayne D. Santoni, associate professor of historical studies at SIUE, whose topic will be "Slavic Europe and the East."

Dr. Vasileff will receive the 1983 SAEEF Award for Outstanding Service to Education.

An emeritus professor of the SIUE School of Dental Medicine, he has devoted his professional life to education, having taught in area secondary schools and as a member of the faculty of the St. Louis University dental school, as well as SIUE.

He served as director of the SIUE Generalist Program and later was acting dean before retiring two years ago. Of Bulgarian and Romanian heritage, he has served on the governing bodies of local Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox churches.

Accidentally shot with empty shell

The wadding from a shotgun shell, which had been emptied of its pellets, penetrated the shirt and skin of Preston L. Lambert, 2028 Russell St., when the shell was fired from a 410-gauge shotgun at a home in the 1700 block of State Street late last week.

No charges have been filed against the 18-year-old youth who allegedly fired the weapon, nor a 16-year-old youth who actually removed the pellets from the shell and whose father owns the gun.

Apparently to protect his friends, Lambert, initially told police he had been shot while walking in an alley in the 2000 block of State Street, but later amended his account of the incident and related the other facts, reports stated.

The 18-year-old youth involved allegedly admitted to police that he pointed the weapon at Lambert and pulled the trigger. He didn't believe his action could hurt anyone, as the pellets had been unloaded from the shells, he said.

The blow (force) from the wadding which remained inside the shells caused the injury to Lambert, reports noted.

The weapon, two empty shells and a box of shells were confiscated from the house where the incident allegedly occurred. The father of the 16-year-old youth was advised to contact officers during the weekend.

TREATED, ARRESTED

File burglary charge against Madison man

Joe Perez, 20, of 820 Lee Ave., Madison, was charged his week with residential burglary in Granite City through an informational document issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office.

Perez appeared before Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand in the Granite City court at 3:30 p.m. Monday and bond was set at $5,000 cash.

A mittimus was issued and he was transferred Tuesday to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

The Madison man was captured allegedly trying to leave the home of Mrs. Margaret Honey, 3714 State St., where police were called at 5:25 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Honey's 12-year-old daughter reported being in an upstairs room and hearing the doorbell ringing persistently. Later, she heard noises coming from the basement, where a dryer vent was found kicked out of a window.

The young girl had been cautioned to keep the door locked while her mother was at the grocery store. After hearing the bell she looked through a peephole and saw a man standing outside.

At that point, she crouched in a corner of the living room, but still could see the man peering through a window, her mother said.

The girl then heard the crash of the dryer vent being kicked out in the basement and ran from the dwelling to the home of a neighbor along the door behind her. The neighbor summoned police.

The family gave police a key to enter the dwelling and one officer alleged seeing a man run through the living room.

The officer then drew his service revolver and ordered the man to halt, reports said.

Another officer stationed at the front of the house saw the man allegedly trying to leave by the front door and the intruder was caught on the front porch and handcuffed. He was searched and certain items of jewelry allegedly were found in his possession.

Some time later, a vehicle allegedly used by Perez was found parked at 27th Street and Madison Ave., reports said. The vehicle was impounded.

Mrs. Honey said officers at the scene commended her laughter for her actions in keeping the doors locked and following instructions. "Kids to listen once in awhile," she commented.

SHRINE-K of C DINNER SUNDAY

Seven different musical groups, including popular dance bands, Dixieland and country western groups, plus acts from the Almad Shrine Temple, will be performing at the annual barbecued pork steak and fried chicken dinner Sunday, sponsored by the Edwardsville Knights of Columbus and Shrine Club at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Marine Road.

The entertainment will be continuous, with performers appearing in the permanent pavilion on the K of C grounds, beginning at noon.

From Noon to 1:15 p.m., the Al Rezabek Group will play; from 1:15 to 2:30, Phil Schiemer and Daybreak will perform, followed by the Almad Drum and Bugle Corps until 3 p.m.

From 3 to 4:15 p.m., Country Sunshine, a country western band, will be on stage, followed by the Almad Oriental Band until 4:45.

The Almad Noblemen, featuring the big band sound, will appear from 4:45 p.m. to 6 p.m., then the Dixielanders will take over to finish up the day's musical activities, performing until 7 p.m.

SUIT FILED AGAINST CHAIRMAN HAGNAUER

Robert E. Flowers of Godfrey has filed a lawsuit against Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagauer of Granite City for refusing to grant Flowers a liquor license earlier this month.

Hagauer also serves as the county's liquor commissioner.

The suit seeks $5,000 for lost earnings, so far, plus $5,000 a month more until a license is issued.

LAWN MOWER GONE

Edna Jones

Mrs. Edna T. Jones, 82, of 2438 Illinois Ave., died at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Wednesday, May 5, 1983, at 4:50 a.m. She was ill three months and hospitalized two days.

Born in Belleville, Mrs. Jones lived in Granite City 80 years.

Her husband, Roy Jones, died in 1965. A son, Edwin "Bud" Jones, Troy, died in 1982, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Pitchford, died in 1976.

Survivors include five daughters: Mrs. Audrey Layton, LaConner, Wash.; Mrs. Everett (Alice) Hudson, Mrs. Art (Ruth) Hehle, Mrs. Edward (Edna) Barnes, and Mrs. Ray Marshall, all of Granite City; 22 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Visitation begins at 3 p.m. today at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave. Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday, with burial in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

Walter Kean

Walter F. Kean, 80, of 2802 Harding Blvd., a retired Granite City steel employee, was pronounced dead at his home at 7:40 p.m. Tuesday, May 10, 1983, by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Sternberg.

A neighbor went to check on Mr. Kean at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday and found him lying on the bedroom floor. The neighbor called police when he was unable to arouse the elderly man. There were no signs of foul play, reports stated.

A resident of Granite City for the past 45 years, Mr. Kean was a native of Greenville, Mo. He was a member of Second Baptist Church.

Prior to retirement, he was employed 30 years in the safety department at Granite City Steel, where he was a member of United Steelworkers of America Local 30.

His wife, Mrs. Opal Kean, died Jan. 5, 1981.

Among the survivors are a sister, Mrs. Harvey (Nora) Stett of Madison, and a brother, Earl Kean of Clubb, Mo.

Services are scheduled for 9 tonight at Davis Funeral Home Chapel, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard, where visitation begins at 4 p.m. today. The Rev. W. W. Showers will officiate.

Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Friday, May 13, at Union Grove Cemetery in Greenville, Mo.

Martha Kunnemann

Mrs. Martha L. (Kleppisch) Kunnemann, 84, of Collinsville, formerly of Granite City, died at 4:25 p.m. Wednesday, May 11, 1983, at the Meadow View Nursing Home in Maryville.

A native of Collinsville Township, Mrs. Kunnemann was a member of Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Collinsville, and the church's Ladies Aid group.

She also was active in the World War I Veterans Auxiliary of Collinsville and was a past officer of the Collinsville Senior Citizens.

Among the survivors are her husband, Elmer F. Kunnemann; three sons, Earl E. and Robert L. Kunnemann, both of Collinsville; and Elmer A. Kunnemann of Sugarland, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Naulty of Florida and Mrs. Rosa Meier of Maryville; a brother, Edward H. Kleppisch of Collinsville; 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Marilyn Ann Troeckel, preceded her in death.

Services will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 14, at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, South and Seminary Streets, Collinsville, with the Rev. Gilbert Busarow officiating. Burial will be in St. John's Cemetery, Collinsville. Visitation begins at 3 p.m. Friday at Herr Funeral Home, 501 W. Main St., Collinsville.

Blanche Leuchter

Blanche W. (Kruger) Leuchter, 72, of 1431 Willowbrook Cove, St. Louis, a former Granite City resident, died at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Sunday, May 8, 1983, at 3:30 p.m. She was hospitalized one and one-half weeks.

Of German ancestry, Mrs. Leuchter was born in London, England, as her parents passed through the country on their way back to the United States from Germany. She lived in various cities in the United States, residing for many years in Cleveland, Ohio.

In 1948, Mrs. Leuchter and her husband, Herbert Leuchter who died in 1965, moved to Granite City after being transferred by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, for which they both worked. They lived here for about 20 years. Mrs. Leuchter was a civilian employee for the former Army Corps of Engineers for 34 years.

Mrs. Leuchter was a member of Temple Israel, St. Louis.

She was a member and officer in both the Granite City Chapter 650 Eastern Star and the Granite City Elks Lodge. She was a member of Hadassah and B'nai B'rith.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Marcia Thompson, St. Louis, and two grandsons, David Thompson, Macao, Ga., and John Thompson, St. Louis. A son, Norbert Kruger, preceded Mrs. Leuchter in death.

Visitation will begin at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 15, at the Rindskopf Funeral Home, 5216 Delmar, St. Louis. Rabbi Alvan Rubin will conduct funeral services at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 15, at the funeral home. Burial will be in New Mt. Sinai Cemetery, St. Louis County.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, memorials be sent to the American Cancer Society or to Hadassah.

Carrie Powers

Mrs. Carrie (Sherrouse) Powers, 86, of 4009 Sara St., died at 4:05 a.m. today, May 12, 1983, at Colonial Haven Nursing Home. She had been ill six years and was a patient at the nursing facility for the same length of time.

Mrs. Powers resided in Granite City about 50 years. She was born in Houston, Tex., and previously was a resident of St. Louis.

She was a member of Tri-City Park Tabernacle.

Among the survivors are her husband, Stephen Powers; one son, Louis Ramsdell of St. Louis; two grandchildren and three sisters and four half-brothers.

Graveside services will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 14, at Valhalla Cemetery, St. Louis, with the Rev. Jim Parks officiating. Visitation begins at 3 p.m. Friday at Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road.

Theresa Soda

Mrs. Theresa (Filaydie) Soda, 79, of Zeigler, Ill., died today, May 12, 1983, at 2805 Birch Ave., the home of a daughter. She was pronounced dead at 7:10 a.m. today by Madison County Deputy Coroner Dick Mizell.

Mrs. Soda had been ill three years and resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John (Mary) Serich of Granite City, for the past 11 months.

She was born in Varos, Austria, and lived 60 years in Zeigler, Ill. Prior to coming here, she resided for some time with a daughter in St. Louis.

Mrs. Soda was a member of Sacred Heart Church of Zeigler and the Croatian Fraternal Union. Her husband, Bob Soda, died in 1961.

Beside Mrs. Serich, also surviving are two other daughters, Mrs. Charles (Lillian) Bristol of St. Louis and Mrs. Charles (Ann) Stewart of Charleston, Ill.; a brother, Paul Filaydie of Belleville; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Her remains were taken to the Vantage Funeral Home in Zeigler, Ill., where services and burial are pending. Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road, was in charge of arrangements here.

Ida Soehnlin

Mrs. Ida L. Soehnlin, 77, of Eden Village Retirement Center, Glen Carbon, an area resident for many years, died at 4:38 a.m. Tuesday, May 10, 1983, at Oliver C. Anderson Hospital, Maryville.

Mrs. Soehnlin was born in Dupu, Ill., and resided in the Edwardsville area more than 25 years. She was a member of Eden United Church of Christ of Edwardsville.

Among the survivors are her husband, Henry H. Soehnlin Sr.; two sons, Norman L. Soehnlin of Troy, Ill., and Henry R. Soehnlin Jr. of South Carolina; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Wells of Litton, Ind., and Mrs. Carol Braun of Cherokee Village, Ark.; a brother, Lloyd Lindemann, and a sister, Mrs. Helen Nolte, both of Dupu; 14 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services will begin at 11 a.m. Friday, May 13, at Weber Funeral Home, 304 N. Main St., Edwardsville, with the Rev. Wesley Bornemann officiating. Burial will be in Valley View Cemetery, Edwardsville. Visitation is underway.

Postpone dedication of multipurpose building

Founders Day and dedication of the Multipurpose Building at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, originally scheduled as 25th Anniversary events on May 15, have been postponed until early fall, according to James R. Buck, director of the Office of Development and Public Affairs at the University.

Buck said the postponement is necessary because the Multipurpose Building, although nearing completion and generally on schedule, will not be ready for a public event by the date previously set for Founders Day in mid-May.

Buck said it appears likely that Founders Day and the dedication of the building will be scheduled during the summer.

He said that if funding is available in the Fiscal Year 1984 budget, which begins July 1, it may be possible for athletic department and academic units to begin moving into the Multipurpose Building during the summer. The option of not opening the new building in FY-84 has been proposed by the university's Planning and Budget Council as one way of allocating the spending cuts which would be necessary if Gov. James Thompson's February budget message is implemented.

Sheriff seeks court action to make state pay for travel

By JIM SCHLUETER

The state says it doesn't have the money to reimburse the Madison County sheriff's department for bringing out-of-state prisoners back to the county, but Sheriff Emil Toffant is seeking court action to make the state pay.

In a letter received by the county's finance committee, Toffant asked the county board to back a possible suit challenging the state's refusal to pay the sheriff for picking up a prisoner earlier this year.

A deputy flew to Colorado to pick up a man wanted on a state felony charge in the county, but the state refused to pay the $640 bill. The state had reimbursed the sheriff in the past for such expenses, but claimed it could no longer do so because of financial problems.

Since then, Illinois has not paid the sheriff for any other trips out of state, but the state requires the sheriff to pick up anyone wanted in the county on a state charge. The sheriff's department is hoping to use the Colorado example as a test case, according to Maj. Edwin Knezevich, director of administration for the sheriff's department.

"State law does not leave an alternative (to reimbursing the county)," Knezevich said Friday. "It says they (the state) shall pay."

Knezevich said the possibility of legal action has been reviewed by the state's attorney's office. The finance committee voted last week to have Director of Administration Mary Kane look into the matter with the sheriff, State's Attorney Don Weber and Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith.

Mrs. Kane said that she hopes other counties in the state will join in a suit because all counties in the state would gain from a favorable outcome in court. "Maybe we could get somebody to share the load," Mrs. Kane said. "One person may fight and everybody else will benefit."

She said the Urban Counties Council gives counties in the state a chance to pool resources in state court cases, and that Madison County's combining forces with other counties would result in a "stronger action."

According to the sheriff's letter, refusal by the state to pay the transportation expenses will cost his department several thousand dollars a year, tightening an already tight budget. Toffant was forced to lay off 17 employees for fiscal 1983 because of county financial problems.

Toffant voiced his concern over the matter to the finance committee last February, but the committee did not act at that time.

ARREST THREE IN COLLINSVILLE

Three Quad-City area residents were arrested by Collinsville police last week on charges related to alcohol and driving.

William Juenger Jr., 59, of Madison, arrested at St. Louis Road and Collinsville Avenue. He was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol and improper lane usage.

Michael Becherer, 24, of Granite City, arrested at Belt Line Road and Illinois 157, was charged with DUI and illegal transportation of liquor. A passenger, Sherry Scott, 20, of Granite City, was also charged with illegal transportation of liquor.

Bill extends age discrimination law

Persons 70 years of age and older would be protected against employment discrimination based on age under legislation supported by Rep. Sam Wolf, approved by the Illinois House, 105 to 2.

"When the age discrimination law was first passed, it had a cutoff at 69 years of age," Wolf said. "However, I think it has been proven that seniors over 69 can perform jobs as well as people half their age. This bill will take the cap off the age discrimination law."

The legislation defines "age" under the Human Rights Act as anyone over the age of 40 years. Currently, the law limits the definition to people 40 to 69 years of age, thus allowing compulsory retirement at 70. This will remove that employment obstacle for many senior citizens and allow them to continue working if they want," Wolf said.

"If we take away an individual's right to earn a living, we are condemning him or her to a life of idleness. That is wrong and this bill will ensure that working seniors are accorded the dignity they deserve and are allowed to continue to pay their own way."

AGRONOMY DAY

The University of Illinois has 13 agronomy days scheduled for this summer. Those of interest to farmers in Madison County include Urbana field day on June 16, Belleville field day on July 20, Carbondale field day on July 21, Dixon Springs field day on Aug. 11 and Brownstown field day on Sept. 2.

Scout-o-rama here Saturday

Scouting supporters and the general public are being urged to attend the 1983 "Scout-o-rama" for the Quad-City area between noon and 8 p.m. Saturday.

Action displays have been planned by more than 30 posts, troops and packs at the ice rink and recreation center in Wilson Park, Granite City. Sponsor is the Uniwah District of the Chokio Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The Illinois District Scout-o-rama also is being held Saturday, at Cottonwood Mall, Edwardsville, and the Kickapoo District event is set for Sunday at St. Paul's High School, Highland.

Patriotic and Indian themes will be emphasized here. Flag ceremonies will begin and end the day.

An American Indian camp will be set up and there also will be exhibits on Indian lore, Indian crafts and making of Indian beads.

At 4 p.m. Saturday, Cahokia Mounds Indian dancers will perform. They also will talk with local scouts considering joining the Indian dance post, which entertains at many events throughout the year.

Additional displays at the ice rink will include conservation, first-aid, bridge building, models and scouts considering joining the Indian dance post, which entertains at many events throughout the year.

Target shooting skills will be tested by firing water pistols at candles and by bursting balloons with "BB" guns.

Refreshments will be made available during the afternoon and evening by the Granite City Park District staff.

Entries in the Scout-o-rama, first to be held here since 1977, are divided between explorer posts, scout troops and cub packs. Units may set up their exhibits from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday.

or on Saturday morning. All are to be ready by 11:30 a.m. Members of participating units are selling tickets costing $1. The tickets also will be available at the door. Children under age seven will be admitted free if accompanied by parents.

Patches are to be awarded to ticket salesmen, and top salesmen will compete for ten-speed bicycles.

Ribbons for unit flags will be awarded in recognition of outstanding activities.

ALCOHOL CHARGE

After a vehicle was driven onto a parking area at East 25th Street and Nameoki Road during the weekend, an officer alleged seeing the driver, Brad Leroy Jones, 28, of St. Louis, drinking from a can of beer. Jones was arrested and charged with illegal transportation of alcohol. He was released upon posting a $52 cash bond.

Police tapes of May 1 tornado on cable show

Video tape of the May 1 tornado's damage taken by the Granite City Police Department will be shown on the next "Coffee Break with Gregg McGee" television program on South-Western Cable TV.

Lt. Col. Robert Astorian and Detective Sgt. Kerry "Kip" Pomeroy will explain what is shown on the 20-minute tape and will discuss how the police served the community during the destructive storm. The tape includes aerial views taken by the Granite City Police from the RTV1 helicopter of damage to the Crossroads Shopping Center, A.O. Smith Corp. and several Granite City neighborhoods. The program will be shown at 10:30 a.m. May 16 and 20 and at 6 p.m. May 18 and 20. "Coffee Break" appears on cable channel 1.

CASH, GUN GONE

'March to Springfield' to focus on state cuts

A group of marchers will depart East St. Louis on Sunday for Springfield, Ill., to focus attention on state cuts in the areas of jobs services and social needs.

In the Metro-East area, the "Crisis March to Springfield" is being sponsored by the St. Clair County Coalition for the Preservation of Economic Justice. East St. Louis is one of three points throughout the state where marchers will begin their travels to the state capital for a May 25 rally.

The core group of local supporters, "Under the governor's proposed 1984 budget, 130,000 General Assistance recipients will lose their only source of income; all Aid to the Medically Indigent will be cut, and there will be a $314 million reduction in education."

May meeting of Esther Circle

Mrs. Dorothy Frohardt and Mrs. Pearl Campbell, entertained the Esther Circle of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church for its May meeting. Mrs. Ruby Corbett offered the opening prayer followed by the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Ethel Lerch, circle leader.

Jean Wallace presented the program on "Don't Be Afraid To Ask" by Catherine Marshall, and Maxine Hacke gave the lesson on "Peace" for the Least Coin.

Mrs. Lerch announced the general meeting of the United Methodist Women will not be held this month in lieu of the spring Style Show and buffet set for May 12 at the church.

Others present were Karen Ambuehl, Pauline Cox, Eula Davis, Annie Earmey, Evelyn Hamrick, Shirley Lane, Kathryn Offit, Grace Padlock and Mary Ahlers, a guest.

marchers will leave East St. Louis at 2 p.m. from St. Mary's Hospital, 129 North Eighth St., where an ecumenical religious service will be offered in support of the marchers.

The march is the centerpiece of the Emergency Campaign for Human Needs, started last December to support jobs and job-training legislation, adequate funding of human service programs and an emergency agricultural program to save the family-owned farms.

According to march supporters, "Under the governor's proposed 1984 budget, 130,000 General Assistance recipients will lose their only source of income; all Aid to the Medically Indigent will be cut, and there will be a $314 million reduction in education."

The St. Clair County Coalition also plans to take at least 20 buses to Springfield on May 25 to join in the rally.

Once in Springfield, the core marchers will lobby their legislators daily until the legislators adjourn on June 30.

The Crisis March has been endorsed by and is supported by more than 100 local and statewide organizations, including the League of Women Voters of Illinois, Association of Chicago Priests, Jewish Council on Urban Affairs, Bapists Ministers Conference, the United Auto Workers, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers and the Illinois Farm Alliance.

THEFT INCIDENT
David W. Jones, 19, of 1602 Spring Ave., was charged with misdemeanor theft following an incident this week at Pantara's Pizzeria, 1535 Johnson Road, in which a $10 bill was removed from the cash register. He was released upon posting a $52 cash bond.

19-INCH TV TAKEN
An intruder stole a 19-inch color television set last week from the Happy Day Child Care Center, 24th Street and Grand Avenue.

HAPPY STRINGS Tamburitzan group will be in concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in Memorial Auditorium at Granite City High School South. A social from 5 to 7 p.m. will follow at Croatian Hall in Madison.

Tamburitzans annual concert is Sunday

The Happy Strings Tamburitzans will hold their ninth annual concert and social on Sunday, May 15, in Memorial Auditorium on the campus of Granite City High School South, 900 Madison Ave., at 3 p.m. There is no admission charge for the concert.

The theme for this year's concert will be "Come Tour the Slavic Countries With The Happy Strings." Songs and dances depicting various Yugoslavian countries' customs will be highlighted by colorful costumes of that particular country.

After the concert, the annual social will be at Croatian Home, 1000 Madison Avenue, Madison.

Food will be served from 5 to 7 p.m., followed by music by Vince's International Polka Band. Admission to the dance is $3 and advance tickets may be purchased from any member of the Happy Strings. Children under 12 will be charged $1.50 at the door.

Happy Strings senior group is directed by John Mudro and the junior group is under the direction of Ken Ban. Choreography for the concert was coordinated by Kathy Debeve and Terry Ban. Members of the group range in age from 8 to 22. The Happy Strings is a non-profit organization solely backed by a parent-boosters organization.

SAUSAGE SALE AT ST. ELIZABETH SET
Seven hundred pounds of Polish sausage made by the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Holy Name Society and John Kowalski will be sold at the church, Johnson and Pontoon roads, this weekend for $2 a pound. Sale hours will be 3 to 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The sausage also will be sold following the 7:30, 9 and 11 a.m. masses Sunday.

Gifted Children Council to meet

Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis will be the featured speaker Monday, May 16, at a meeting of the Granite City Council for Gifted Children, taking place at 7 p.m. at Parkview School, 3200 Maryville Road.

An election of officers for the 1983-84 school year will be part of the meeting agenda, and plans for the new year will be finalized. All members of the council and persons interested in gifted education are being encouraged to attend the session, the final program of the current school year.

A program for children also is planned in conjunction with the meeting.

LAS VEGAS NIGHT SATURDAY AT K OF C

Las Vegas will come to the Knights of Columbus Tri-City Council 1098, 21st Street and Edison Avenue, Saturday night.

The council's Las Vegas night will feature games at 7 p.m. and an auction at 11 p.m. Players may obtain $1,000 in play money for each $2 they donate at the door. There will be a cash bar. The event is open to the public.

LEADING ROLE

among the female actors is portrayed by Jiny Tuetken, director of public relations for St. Elizabeth Medical Center, in the Alton Little Theater production of Weinstock and Gilbert's play, "Catch Me If You Can." Directed by Birdine M. Groshong, a former Granite City resident, the comedy continues at The Showplace, Elm and Henry streets in Alton Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m.

Summer Rent-A-Camp program expands

The Department of Conservation is expanding its Rent-A-Camp Program by increasing the number of state sites offering the "tailor-made camping" plan, scheduled to begin its second year Friday.

Charles Tamminga, DOC associate director and head of the Department's Bureau of Lands and Historic Sites, said 15 state parks — 11 more than last year — will offer ready-made, fully-equipped campsites at a rental charge of $8 or $16 along with regular camping fees, ranging from $3 to $6.

This season, in addition to the four-cot wall tents utilized last year, 14-by-14-foot, eight-cot tents for large families will be provided at several sites, Tamminga reported.

As in 1982, users will find at each campsite a tent, cots, charcoal grill, battery-powered camp light, fire extinguisher, broom and trashpan, fire ring, picnic table and trash barrel. All of the tents have canvas floors and are placed on wooden platforms for protection against inclement weather and to increase air circulation. Although reservations are not required, they are recommended.

The program is intended as a low-cost introduction to camping for those who have not yet tried it, and as a service to experienced campers who do not own camping gear or cannot easily transport it, Tamminga said.

Expansion has been made through the assistance of several corporations. Thirty 9 x 11-foot tents have been donated jointly by Sears, Roebuck and Co. and the maker of the units, Kellwood Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis. Union Carbide Co. and a subsidiary, Eveready, have contributed 30 camp lanterns.

Rental fees are $8 for sites having small tents and $16 for those with the large units. Camping fees are $3 for Class C areas (vehicular access only), $5 for Class B campsites (vehicular access, plus electricity or showers), and $6 for Class A areas (vehicular access, plus electricity and showers).

Check-in time is 4 p.m. Check-out must be by 3 p.m. the following day or the final day of the campers' stay. Rent-A-Camp sites may be rented for up to 14 consecutive days. No dogs or other pets are allowed.

Reservations forms or further information on the program may be acquired at the site or by writing to the Conservation Department's Springfield office, in care of Rent-A-Camp Program, 524 South Second St., Springfield, IL 62706. The phone is (217) 782-6752.

A deposit of one night's Rent-A-Camp fee is required before the site will be reserved. Deposits are not refundable.

Reservations are confined to writing. A sheet explaining check-in procedures and listing items campers should carry with them also is sent with the confirmation notice.

Campers are responsible for the rental equipment, which will be inventoried at the end of the user's stay.

PLEADS GUILTY IN BATTERY CASE

Greg S. Jones, 22, of 2325 Hodges Ave., was arrested there late last week and charged with battery after he allegedly struck his wife, Sherri Jones, with his fists during an argument and kicked her back and legs.

In a court appearance the same day, Jones pleaded guilty and was fined and released.

Arrest 2 after traffic mishap

After a traffic accident at Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard during the weekend, Reynaldo Mr. Pena, 24, St. Louis, one of the motorists involved, alleged following the driver of the second vehicle to 17th Street and Cleveland Boulevard.

Upon drawing alongside a car operated by Timothy P. Cox, 17, of 2124 Dewey Ave., Pena alleged the Cox auto was then backed into his vehicle.

Cox, who claimed the second mishap occurred when he reversed his auto to talk with the other motorist, was charged with reckless driving.

While checking Pena's driver's license, officers learned an active warrant for the St. Louis man was held by the Madison Police Department. The warrant alleged failure to appear in court on a criminal damage to property charge and he was transferred to Madison custody.

NOW! INSTANT MOBILITY...

Freedom. Not just for me, a disabled person, but for my family, too. Before, they had to push me around nearly everywhere. Not anymore. I'm self propelled with my TRI-KART. Now I can go almost anywhere by myself. And I mean anywhere. My TRI-KART disassembles easily and quickly. Off lifts the steering handle and seat and in the trunk it goes — just 33 lbs. I go to the movies, malls and church. At restaurants, I roll up to the table, swivel my TRI-KART seat into place, and enjoy a meal eating out. No more embarrassing seat transfers. I stay in my TRI-KART. I can even go to the restroom alone because my TRI-KART is just 18 inches wide. The best part about my TRI-KART is that it costs less than any other three wheeled electric cart. Plus it is Medicare approved. Ill. appropriations show $2.62 billion imbalance Apparently the General Assembly is prepared to add new spending but is not prepared to raise the money to pay for its proposed programs," Gov. James R. Thompson said last week.

"It took two weeks and a loss of more than $14 million before the Assembly would address the revenue shortfall for this fiscal year. Now, lawmakers have rejected the first step in addressing the major shortfall we face next year by refusing to support Senate Bill 1285 which would have asked state employees to pay a larger share of their health insurance costs."

"The legislature can't have it both ways," Thompson said. "It can't introduce $2.62 billion in appropriations and then turn around and refuse to cut spending elsewhere or pass new revenues."

"Some of these proposed programs are worthy of funding consideration, such as organ transplant grants and helping rape victims."

"But there is no way any of them can be considered if there are no new revenues." Among the largest proposed appropriation bills are those containing $235 million for higher education above the level contained in the March budget, a $391 million increase for grammar and high schools, $135 million for mass transit grants and $234 million for continued funding of local revenue sharing.

Overall, the governor said, bills introduced in the legislature this session contain nearly $633 million in new appropriations the state cannot afford and another $540 million in over-appropriations for new or continued programs that cannot be supported without new revenue.

In addition, supplemental appropriations for the current fiscal year totaling $71 million, or nearly half the money cut under the Emergency Budget Act, would be added back into the budget under legislators' funding bills.

Non-appropriation bills which do not appropriate money but which have a fiscal impact on the state total another $488 million to $549 million.

Finally, another $694 million in appropriations for tax relief programs make up the $2.62 billion price tag, Thompson said.

GAZEBO. George Fath, an employee of the Granite City Park District, puts shingles on the roof of the gazebo which is being built in Wilson Park. Construction on the gazebo should be completed in the next week or two. Ac-ording to Dave Nolan, park recreation director, landscaping could be completed by July if a grant comes into the district. If the money does not come, landscaping may be spread over two years.

State urged to finance schools

The Granite City School Board has ratified a resolution calling on the state to resolve serious school financial problems.

Supt. B. J. Davis related that "the Granite City Coalition for Public Education has met on two occasions on the financial plight of schools in Illinois, in general, and this school district, in particular."

"Based on these discussions and the realization that additional revenues must be forthcoming if educational programs and quality are to remain, the Coalition drafted a resolution. The Coalition is recommending approval by each of its parent bodies.

"It would then be forwarded to legislators, the executive branch, the Illinois School Board Association, the Illinois State Board of Education and the state organizations of each of our local groups."

The resolution says that "the state's support for education has been declining over the past few years, and appropriations have been far below the amount the State Board of Education has recommended as the minimal amount of funding needed."

"Education is primarily a state responsibility under the Illinois Constitution, the state has the primary responsibility for financing the system of public education."

"The inability of the state to adequately fund education has been due at least in part to a lack of revenue generated by the current tax structure and the economy."

"Current revenue projections indicate further deterioration of the state's financial condition over the next few years."

"The Granite City Coalition for Public Education has continuously been in support of adequate state financing of public elementary and secondary public education."

"Be it resolved that the Coalition urges the General Assembly to support tax increases, as well as other revenue reducing proposals. And the Coalition urges the Assembly to provide sufficient state revenues to adequately support public elementary and secondary education."

Following the program there will be a social hour with coffee and cake served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the FRA.

Non-swimmer rescues boy, 7, in Long Lake

By Valerie Evenden of the Press-Record
Seventeen-year-old Jeffrey Cox can't swim a stroke, but he forgot this fact when he saw a young child fall into Long Lake and then submerge beneath the surface.
"Jeff jumped into the lake," grabbed the younger from under the water and pulled him to safety. He got the child to breathe and the little boy started choking and throwing up a lot of water," a witness to the incident related.
The mishap occurred during the evening hours of Saturday, April 30, and it was brought to the Press-Record's attention this week by a friend of the family of Michael Hintz, 7, who came close to being a drowning victim.
Jeff managed to drag the boy and himself out of the lake to safety on the shore. The water is at least 5 1/2 feet deep at the rear of the Dean Powderly property at 4032 Lake Drive, where the accident happened.

The small boy is not believed to have suffered any lasting ill effects from a mishap. He is the son of Mrs. Patti Hintz of Granite City and a grandson of the Powderlys.
Although Jeff accomplished the life-saving feat without getting hurt, the dousing he took in the cold lake water apparently made the teenage rescuer ill a few days later.
Last Thursday, he was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center suffering from double pneumonia, family friends reported.
He remains in the medical center today, but no longer requires oxygen and is expected to be home, Mrs. Hintz said.
Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marek, 36 Wilson Park Drive, and is a junior at Granite City High School South.

Jeff, his mother and a friend, Theresa Dolosic, also of Granite City, were visiting the Powderly home with several other friends and were getting ready to go fishing at the time.
Mrs. Hintz, Michael and another child were on a small dock at the rear of the Lake Drive property when the children started playing and pushing each other and Michael fell in to the water.
Mrs. Hintz, who also is unable to swim, began screaming and, at that point, Jeff spotted the boy going under the water, friends said.
"He came up once and then went under again," a witness said. It was estimated that the child was beneath the surface about a minute and a half.
"I guess Jeff didn't think about not being a swimmer. He just jumped in," the family friend said.

Court order keeps Roxy's open

Roxy's topless bar in Brooklyn will remain open, at least until Friday, under a temporary restraining order issued by a St. Clair County circuit judge.
Brooklyn Mayor Marcellus West said the decision to try and close three businesses, including Roxy's, was made after citizens complained of late night disturbances they contended were linked to the late tavern hours. Brooklyn taverns close at 4:30 on weeknights, 6 a.m. on weekends and 2 a.m. Sunday nights (actually Monday morning).

West also attempted to impose earlier closing hours for all Brooklyn taverns.
However, the owners of Roxy's filed a lawsuit when the shutdown order was issued and Circuit Judge William Starnes issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting the village from closing the topless bar, at least until a hearing on Friday.

GC Elementary Chorus Monday

The annual Spring Concert of the Granite City School District Elementary Chorus will be presented at 7 p.m. Monday, May 16, in the gymnasium at Nameoki Grade School.
The chorus consists of fourth, fifth and sixth grade students who were selected from each elementary school in Granite City. Pat Michaeloff, chorus director, explained.
Admission to the concert is free and the public is invited to attend, the director said.

DISMISS CHARGE
A charge of harrasment by telephone against Gary Dacus, 3142 Lee Ave., was dismissed April 18 in an appearance in the Third Judicial Circuit Court at Edwardsville. The complainant failed to appear at the hearing, records show, and the charge was dismissed upon recommendation of the Madison County state's attorney's office.

Preceptor Beta Gamma anniversary Sunday

Preceptor Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will mark its ninth anniversary at a celebration Sunday, May 15, starting at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jan Monaghan of Granite City.
Plans for the anniversary event were reviewed at Monday night's chapter meeting at the home of Betty Beech, 3253 Wayne Ave., with the hostess also discussing arrangements for Sunday.
Among the events will be the installation of Donna Lane as the new chapter president, together with her officer corps and presentation of exemplar and preceptor degrees to those who have qualified for higher rank.

Carol Cathey, chapter president, was in charge of this week's business session and Mrs. B. J. Jones read secretarial and financial reports.
Information concerning Beta Sigma Phi's state convention, scheduled in November at Aurora, was provided, along with promotional material about a cookbook.
The final cultural programs for the current year were introduced by Marilyn Lumpkins.
Nadine Simpson spoke on the topic, "How to Do Your Own Last Will and Testament," noting the various legal forms available for this purpose.
Mrs. Lane reviewed parts of "The Lefty's Survival Manual," which detailed the functional differences in left-handed persons, some of the advantages of being left-handed, but also the handicaps they face in a "right-handed world."

Homemakers visit Botanical Garden

The Southwest District of Madison County Homemakers' Association met last week at the Missouri Botanical Garden in the Ridgeway Center.

The meeting was called to order by President Elizabeth Schmidt, who led the Homemakers' Aim Roll. Call was answered by all five units present; Creative Unit had the largest percentage of their members present and they will keep the traveling trophy and silver cream and sugar set for six months until the next district meeting in November.

Alma Beckman, the secretary, read the minutes and the treasurer's report was given by Joan Stark.

Lillian Adams, vice president, presented the nominated officers, who were voted in, and Helen Miller, a past president, installed the following officers for the 1983-1984 year: president, Elizabeth Schmidt; vice president, Arla Ault; secretary, Alma Beckman; and treasurer, Willye Mae Lowery.

The host unit was Creative Women and President Martha Leavell, who made arrangements for the trip by bus to the Missouri Botanical Gardens. President Ada Walker extended an invitation for the Venice-Madison unit to host the November district meeting. The date and program will be announced later.

The meeting adjourned with 37 members and 4 guests to spend remainder of trip touring. Lunch was enjoyed in the Gardenview Restaurant and on the patio.

A group toured the Tower Grove House with a guide.

Others took a walking guided tour of the garden and some took advantage of the Electric Trams, which provided a one-mile narrated tour of the grounds. Many toured the Climatron, Scented Garden, Mediterranean House, Desert House, The Floral Display Hall, Spink Gallery, Japanese Garden and Rose Gardens.

The Garden Gate Shop was not missed, attendance prizes were purchased and were awarded to the following: having a lucky number for the day: Lillian Adams, Genevieve Massie, Lucy Stewart, Joan Stark and Lillian Ruebhausen.

Guests on the trip were Lorraine Deason, Betty Schmiedake and Margie Flambers. Theresa Gargus, who was the driver, also participated in the trip and tour.

Robbins announce birth of first child

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robbins, 705 Washington Ave., Madison, are announcing the birth of their first child, a son, Kyle Richard. The mother is the former Leslie Large.

The baby was born May 6 at the Lutheran Medical Center, St. Louis. He weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces.

Maternal grandmother is Wilma Large of Granite City and paternal grandmother is Mary Robbins of Madison.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST AT ST. ELIZABETH'S

A pancake and sausage breakfast to raise money for the St. Elizabeth Catholic Center will be Sunday, May 22, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church cafeteria, 2300 Ponton Road.

The cost is $2.50 for adults, $1.25 for children 6 to 12, and for children under 6 is free. Carryouts will be available. The day care center will open in the church convent.

Col. 2-6 "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him."

When one receives Christ as Saviour, he does so by faith. It is written, "For by grace through faith are ye saved, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God. (Eph. 2:8). We will be changed when we are saved, but change will not save us. We will think new thoughts when we become saved, but changing our minds will not save us. We must, by faith, believe on Christ as our Saviour.

As we receive the Lord Jesus by faith, we continue to walk in Him by the same faith. That is how it is possible to become and remain a Christian, regardless of adversity. We take each day as it comes. The good, the bad, the joys, the sorrows—what ever shall come our way, our abiding faith in Christ will see us through.

Why not put our faith in Christ and receive Him as Saviour? Today.

ON DISPLAY TONIGHT will be the art works of Bob Wilds and Kelly Ault, who are among the Granite City High School South students participating in the Fine Arts Festival on the South campus. An art show opens at 7 tonight, followed by a South Band concert at 8.

Cable TV show features artists

The 17th Annual Town & Country Art Show, May 13 to 15, will be featured throughout May on "The Extension People," a 30-minute cable TV program produced by the Madison County Extension staff.

The art show will be at the Rox-Arena in Roxana Park. The program will be shown on Channel 1, Mondays at 6 p.m., Thursdays at noon and Fridays at 10 a.m.

The program features works of amateur artists from Granite City, Roxana, Alton, Edwardsville, Troy, Collinsville and Highland. It also features interviews with Herschel Nelson, a Roxana artist and Mark Badach, director of parks and recreation for the Roxana Park District.

The art show, judged by Dr. Walter Johnson of Urbana, is free and open to the public.

The show hours are Friday, May 13, from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, May 14, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 15, from 1 to 4 p.m. Interested persons may obtain additional information by calling the University of Illinois extension office in Edwardsville, 1-656-8400.

A 7-month-old black and tan female Doberman Pinscher, which was tied to the rear steps at the home of Cindy Mayes, 2241 Iowa St., was stolen, she told police early this week.

Amy Hardin is stable after liver transplant

Amy Lynn Hardin remains in critical but stable condition at the University of Minnesota Hospitals after receiving a liver transplant Tuesday. The transplant was made possible by thousands of persons and groups, including many Quad-Cityans, who raised the necessary money.

Amy, the 11-month-old daughter of David and Robin Hardin of Cahokia, received the liver of a 74-month-old boy who died after apparently being struck on the head.

Daniel Sakellarios died Friday in Tallahassee, Fla., after developing breathing problems while under the care of a babysitter, who has been charged with murdering the infant, Donna Marie Catillier, 24, was being held without bond on the murder charge.

While Amy's father has told reporters he is angered and saddened by the circumstances that enabled his daughter to receive a new liver, he and his wife also are elated about Amy's chances for survival.

Her vital signs are reported stable and her liver function is normal. She will, however, remain in intensive care for several weeks and it will be a few more days before doctors are certain the liver will not be rejected.

Dr. John Narjarian, chief transplant surgeon at the Minnesota hospital, performed the operation, which took about 6½ hours.

SPRING FESTIVAL OF STRING STUDENTS

The Spring Festival Concert of the students in the String Development Program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

In all, 175 students in the Preparatory Program, ranging between the ages of 3 and 17, will play the violin and cello under the direction of John Kendall. The young artists are developing under the "Talent Education" method of Shinichi Suzuki. The program at SIUE dates back to 1965 and is recognized as the first to employ the Suzuki approach in this country.

Working with the students are members of the university string faculty, along with graduate assistants from around the world. Qualified undergraduates are also involved.

Many Suzuki teachers received their initial training at SIUE.

Students and parents travel from a 75-mile radius once or twice weekly for private and group instruction at the university. Those studying in the program have been featured three times with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, in addition to many other performances in the area.

Carol Smith is coordinator of the Preparatory Program, while Kendall is the director of the overall String Development Program. Further information concerning the concert or the program is available by calling 1-652-2839.

HOW TO MAKE THE MOST MONEY YOUR MONEY CAN MAKE.

With all the different interest rates it's hard to decide how to get the most for your money. One way to eliminate this uncertainty is to lock in today's high rates with one of our longer term CD's.

	Current Interest Rate * %	Effective Annual Yield ** %
24 Month CD	9.500	9.964
30 Month CD	9.600	10.074
42 Month CD	9.750	10.239
60 Month CD	10.000	10.515

* These rates effective from May 10th thru May 21, 1983.

 This yield achieved if principal and interest remain on deposit for the term.

Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early CD withdrawal.

You can open one of these certificates for just $500. But with rates like these, you'll want to put most of your money to work making the most it possibly can.

YOU MAKE MORE MONEY EVERY DAY.

If you compare long term certificates, you'll find that some don't offer daily compounding. This means you're not getting the most for your money.

At Illini Federal, all of our long term CD's are compounded daily to give you higher yields.

We have lots of ways to give you the most for your money. To be sure which is the best way, come in and talk to one of our Financial Counselors. Make us your family financial center.

NOW WE'RE ALL YOU NEED.

ALLEGES PAIR HAS BEER IN PARKED CAR

Checking vehicles in the 2800 block of East 25th Street during the weekend, an officer alleged seeing two youths drinking beer in a parked auto.

Arrested were Kevin M. Knipping, 20, of 4915 Maryville Road, who was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol, and David M. Walker, 17, of 2450 Delmar Ave., who was charged with illegal possession of alcohol. Both were released after each posted a $52 cash bond.

Economic recovery is among goals of Ill. House legislation

By STATE REP.
SAM W. WOLF

The best purchase a legislator could have made last week was a pair of roller skates. Friday was the deadline for all bills to be heard in committee.

Every committee met at least twice and has had as many as 50 bills on each calendar.

The schedule was complicated by the fact that many legislators had to be in two committees simultaneously and, usually, in a third and fourth committee to present his or her bills. The result was a zoo.

Nevertheless, the majority of legislators and their bills were heard and several important pieces of legislation have been reported to the House floor for consideration.

1. The Economic Recovery Package — The House Democratic Task Force on Economic Recovery presented its package of legislation. It is designed to encourage expansion and product development for Illinois businesses.

HB 1209 combines two current finance authorities into one Illinois Development Finance Authority. The legislation further creates three new programs: The Venture Investment Program, the Insured Industrial Revenue Bond Program, and the Land Bank Program.

The purpose of the package is to create a financial climate in this state which will encourage investment in Illinois businesses and provide for venture capital to new and expanding industries.

Unlike many programs, this legislation takes very little money from the state's already tight general revenue funds. Instead, the financial community and investment corporations are given realistic incentives to become involved in our economic recovery.

2. The Hazardous Waste Package — More and more, communities throughout the state are being threatened by landfills of hazardous or toxic substances.

In an attempt to bring this problem under control, the Energy and Environment Committee passed a number of bills.

HB 1257 increases the disposal fee for hazardous waste disposal. Increased funds are to be directed toward a clean-up.

HB 1410 gives additional authority for investigation and establishes a Hazardous Waste Advisory Council in the state.

HB 2171 increases the fine for hazardous waste violators and includes penalties and provisions for violations of toxic dumping. In all, these bills are a step to insure a healthy and safe environment for our communities and our children.

3. Public Utilities Reform — A number of bills to help keep the lid on our skyrocketing utility rates passed committee last week.

HB 99, which passed the full House, prohibits utility companies from automatically passing on to customers the cost of transporting out-of-state coal into Illinois.

HB 367 would prohibit utility companies from having utility customers subsidize their promotional advertisements. After all, few, if any of us, have a choice as to what utility we use.

HB 368 would phase out construction work in progress (CWIP) costs to the customer over a five-year period and substantially decrease any SWIP in the rate base in the next five years.

Power shutoffs would be banned in HB 1345 during weather under 32 degrees and, in weather warmer than that, it would require that customers make a good faith effort in the winter months to avoid disconnection.

4. Parental Consent — Currently, unemancipated minors can go to a social service agency and receive either birth control information or birth control measures without the consent of their parents.

Many parents, naturally, feel that this decision is a family one and that the lack of parental consent constitutes governmental interference with families.

HB 1612 would require any state-funded agency to notify the parents of a minor who seeks fertility control services at least 72 hours prior to providing such services.

5. Small Business Legislation — Attention was given to the problems of small businesses in the Select Committee on Small Business.

HB 228 and 239 create a Small Business Division within the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) to assist small firms in Illinois and authorize DCCA to establish small business centers throughout the state in cooperation with Illinois universities and colleges.

HB 2033 also passed committee and creates the "State Corporation for Innovation Development Act." It would provide for a state corporation to raise funds to make investments in small business establishments.

HB 439 passed the full House and creates an Office of Product Research and Development to foster the development of consumer products, especially those made and marketed by Illinois small businesses.

It is clear that the focus on economic recovery has fostered a new and long overdue interest in the problems and concerns of our small businesses.

Obviously, these are just the highlights of the week's activities. Many of us wished for "beepers" and golf carts to keep up with all the committees and their bills.

The sheer number of bills reported out of committee promises to keep us very busy for the next two months, which will be a critical period. During this time, many ideas may become law.

I would like to hear from my constituents, as it is important to know in what direction they believe this state should be going.

Summer day camp plans being made

Plans are being made here to facilitate day camping programs this summer.

The Tri-City Area Association for Retarded will use a room at Niedringhaus School for arts and crafts that will be offered during the group's two-week day camp July 11-22.

Girl Scouts will utilize parking lots at the Emerson, Logan, Mitchell, Niedringhaus, North and Webster schools during their day camp from June 27 to July 1.

The Quad Cities Soccer Association will use the Prather Junior High football field, situated adjacent to school land it already has leased for its soccer games.

The Granite City Park District will use the Granite City High School South lighted baseball complex for the summer park baseball season, which will end Aug. 6.

JAYCEES DONATION. Larry Beyer, president of the Granite City Jaycees, presents Brenda Fabik of the Southwestern Illinois Epilepsy Foundation with a $10,000 donation. Anita Hahne, left, wife of Jaycee member Colin Hahne, helped organize the donation. The donation releases $37,500 in federal grant monies to open an epilepsy clinic at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Ideas being sought on Prather name

How should the Prather school building be known in the 1983-84 school year? Those with thoughts on the subject are being asked to share them with the school district.

A decision is to be made at the May 17 Board of Education meeting. When it was decided to close Logan Grade School after the 1982-83 year, and to convert Prather Junior High into an elementary school, the board renamed the latter school Prather-Logan.

Since then, some have praised the action and others have said they would prefer that it be known only as Prather.

The board has agreed to take another look at the issue and to try to decide May 17.

Kenneth McDonough and Toni Simmers

McDonough-Simmers

Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Simmers, 213 Lenox Ave., Mitchell, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Toni Marie Simmers to Kenneth Charles McDonough, of St. Louis, Mo.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonough, Rural Route Two, Filmore, Ill.

Plans are being completed, by the engaged couple, for a June 25 wedding to take place at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

Miss Simmers graduated in 1974 from Granite City High School North and in 1979 from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she earned a B.S. Degree in Engineering.

Her fiancé is a 1973 graduate of Vandavia High School and also earned a B.S. Degree in Engineering in 1978 from SIUE. Both young people are employed as structural engineers at the William C. Carr & Associates, Inc.

Install officers of Minerva Women's Club

The Minerva Women's Club held its annual Mother-Daughter banquet in the Officers Club of the Army Installation.

Phyllis Brusatti, vice president, was in charge of the program. The St. Clair Historical Society presented a program entitled, "The Liberated Woman," showing the change in clothes style as years passed. Garments worn by women in the early 1800s were displayed and clothes from the year 1900 through 1930 were modeled by members of the society.

Following the program, the officers for the 1983/84 year were installed by President Peggy Sallberger, they are: Helen Cook, president, Ruth Thornberry, vice president, Charlotte Rae Rapp, treasurer; Mary Dame, recording secretary; Sara Metcalf, corresponding secretary, and Elaine Shipcoff, sergeant-at-arms.

Apothecary jars filled with popcorn were awarded those holding specific numbers.

Seventy-four members and guests attended.

BUNKO-ETTES CLUB HONORS MEMBER

Mrs. Helen Lipchik was honored on her birthday by members of the Bunko-Ettes Club at a meeting hosted by Mrs. Wanda Puhse, 2822 Pershing Blvd.

She received a decorated cake and gift from the group. Prize winners in the evening games were Leona Delaloye, May Ebling, Ruth Gabriel, Rose Druhe and Mrs. Lipchik. Others present were Julia Portell and Dolores Hillis, a guest.

Bell-Parish

The engagement of Miss Linda Kay Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Parish and James Earl Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Bell, all of Granite City, is being announced by the bride-elect's parents.

A 1976 graduate of Granite City High School North, Miss Parish also graduated in 1981 from the School of the Ozarks, in Branson, Mo. She is currently a substitute teacher and attends Broadcast Center in Clayton, Mo.

The prospective groom is an employee of Lanter Refrigeration Distribution in Madison and is a 1974 graduate of Granite City High School South.

A July wedding is being planned.

Brokaws visit the Ozarks

The Brokaw family went to Lazy Lee Resort in honor of the 84th birthday of their mother, Lillie Brokaw Brueggemann of Granite City. They also fished. The wind and rain hampered the fishing, but they got a few nice fish. They played inside and outside games.

They visited Silver Dollar City and shopped in Branson and Kemberling City.

There were two birthday cakes, one for Mrs. Brueggemann's 84th and one for Gilbert, M. Brokaw's 55th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven (Sherry) Goldman, of Godfrey, Ill., formerly of Granite City, are announcing the birth of a daughter, on May 5 at St. Joseph Hospital in Alton.

The new arrival has been named Elissa Marie and she weighed 7 pounds.

Grandparents include Mrs. Sharon Castle of Ohio, James Little, Wood River, Mrs. Darlene Morris of Granite City, and the late Edward Goldman.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Kessler

Kessler-Barr

The wedding of Miss Elisa Barr, daughter of Mrs. Michael M. Barr, 4080 Park Lane and Monte Leroy Kessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monte Leroy Kessler, 2517 Ivy Lane, was solemnized on April 16 at Namecki United Methodist Church.

Miss Beth Nicol served as organist and accompanied Mrs. June Branding as she sang a program of nuptial music.

The Rev. Eugene Seaman officiated at the 6 o'clock evening ceremony, which was followed with a reception at the American Legion Hall, in Granite City.

Miss Nancy Ann Barr, a sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, and Paul Harris attended the groom as best man.

Greg Kessler, the groom's brother, and Dale Bowles, seated the guests.

Both young people are senior students at Granite City High School North. The groom will depart July 8 for basic training with the U.S. Army at Fort Dix, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gray

Mr. and Mrs. Gray mark anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas (Karen) Gray, 14 Hanson Road, were honored at a surprise champagne dinner party in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Hosts were the couple's children, Mrs. Pat (Coleen) Olson, Mrs. Ed (Sharon) Riggins and Tom "T.G."

A buffet dinner was served at tables centered with burning tapers and bouquets of fresh flowers in lavender; silver and white hues. A tiered wedding cake frosted in matching colors and topped with silver bells centered another table.

Guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. James Olson, Mr. and Mrs. John Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riggins, Mesdames Alma Walk, Mildred Adams, Opal Floyd, Mabel King, Cathi Barker, and Jake Moody, the honoree's sons-in-law, Pat Olson and Ed Riggins, and a granddaughter, Kera Marie Olson.

Out of town guests included, Mrs. Edna Cook, Steedman, Mo., Mrs. Patty Hilborn, Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Floyd of Collinsville.

SR. CITIZEN DANCE

IS SET FOR MAY 26
Chouteau Township Senior Citizens met at the Township Hall with 66 in attendance.

Enjoying a pot luck dinner, the group completed plans for a dance at the hall on May 26 at 7:30 p.m. Members are to bring cupcakes for refreshments.

Hartford, Granite City and Edwardsville senior groups are being invited. A bus trip is being planned for June 8, to go to the Ralston Purina Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo., and the McDonnell Planetarium in St. Louis.

Six new members were enrolled, for a total of 118 members. Nine members were honored on their birthdays.

Following the meeting, a white elephant sale was held, with Patricia Polley being the auctioneer.

Entertainment for the evening was music by the National School of Music. Members of the group were Principal Burel Schmeisser, piano, David Malottke; drums, Bill Salas; organ, Kathy Charte; guitar, Tammy Wickham; and guitar, Jeff Held.

They were introduced by Lillian Delps, program chairman.

80TH BIRTHDAY
The Hills Terrace Birthday Club went on an outing to celebrate the 80th birthday of one of the members, Mrs. Judy Eaton. They had dinner at the Heritage House.

Those attending included Arlene Hickam, Jeri Schieb, Wanda Ogden, Mickey Heidbrink, Thelma Morelan, Stella Miller, Marie Burris and two guests, Chester Heidbrink and Jim Schieb. The club will go to Wilson Park in June for a picnic lunch.

RETURN TO NEVADA
Mr. and Mrs. David Harrison of Reno, Nev., have returned home after a visit with their aunt, Mrs. Lois Weeks, and other relatives.

Again this year, a local group went to Branson, Mo., for the opening of Silver Dollar City. Those who attended were Jim and Jeri Schieb, Roy and Ruth Hamann, Karen and Virgil Tucker, Arlene Hickam, Norman and Branda Richter, Norman Richter Jr., Karl and Barbara Fulmer and Dorsey and Mary McKinnon.

DINNER FOR MOTHERS
The Mitchell Presbyterian Church ladies held a mother and daughter banquet at the Township Hall. Mrs. Iona Uhlman was honored as the eldest mother present, Susan Smith the youngest mother and Anaroy Bixler, the mother with the most children.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whyers Sr. of Margaret Street have returned from Wisconsin, where they attended the funeral of a cousin, Milton Whyers. They also visited their son-in-law and daughter, David and Patricia Evans and family.

City loves a grateful giver

It's important to have a good attitude, even when someone is picking your pocket.

Quad-Cities are being bombarded with warnings. It's time to buy your auto's city sticker. Don't forget to buy a building permit before you fix up your home. The cost of a business license keeps rising. Don't forget to put money in your parking meter.

A lot of Granite Cityans will find themselves sorry Monday that they only got that $5 instead of buying a city sticker. Police will begin ticketing violators Monday morning. The fine could buy one year's worth of Press-Records.

In that 104 issues, there are bound to be many warnings which could save the reader money. Today is a good example, don't connect your sump pumps to the county sewers or you could face a big fine. Monday, we warned that the crackdown on city stickers would begin next Monday.

Oh, well. It's $5 here, 5 cents in the parking meter, $50 for a city business license.

Remain calm!

It's all for a good purpose. The money goes to support services we all need, such as fire and police protection, street improvements, roadblocks to check city stickers and to pay the building inspectors.

Don't you feel better?

Unemployment hurts teens too

Unemployment in Granite City declined from 18.3 percent in February to 18.1 percent in March, according to the Illinois Department of Labor, which may show a continued improvement, but 18.1 percent is still too high.

Each percent translates into 194 people living on unemployment and searching for jobs. Most of those are in families which are struggling to get by.

"At times, it can be as hard on the children of these families as on the parents. John Rush, executive director of the Northeast Summit Family Service in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, has some suggestions which were printed in "On Your Own" magazine, a publication for high school students which is distributed by the U.S. Army.

He suggests that teens and children understand that it's okay to have scared and negative feelings which should be expressed. Find friends, in a similar situation, if possible, with whom some of the fears can be exchanged. School counselors also are good at matching students in similar situations.

Youths may want to discuss the situation with the parents. Frequently, youths worry about losing the house or running out of food, when things aren't as bad as they appear.

He also suggests staying active in school activities or other organized projects to avoid "sinking into depression."

Youths should accept the possibility that they will argue more with their parents, their friends and their dates. Tension will show up, but understanding it and the reasons for irritability can make it easier to stop.

Teens also should try to be secure in the knowledge that better times are ahead and that they and the family will be stronger for having endured the crisis together. "Many teens who make it through things like this have a real conviction that they can deal with anything that comes down the road in the future," Rush says.

Nichols to influence Greathouse's vote on a zoning matter.

Court documents indicate that Barton was to pass $500 on to Greathouse, president of the Metro-East Sanitary District and a member of the county's zoning board of appeals. Nichols sought a special use permit to sell topsoil to SCA Services' landfill, located next to property he owns. He also wanted a culvert placed over a sanitary district ditch.

Greathouse has said he gave the $500 back to Barton the following day and later voted against Nichols' permit and culvert. Barton contends he considered the money to be a political contribution. Judge Ferguson said he ruled that statements made by Barton to an investigator in the presence of Assistant State's Attorney Tom Long could not be used against him.

In concluding the order Wednesday, Judge Ferguson said the dismissal was "a distasteful thing for this judge to do. To dismiss denies everyone their day in court; it denies the people a conviction and punishment, if warranted, and defers and avoids trial and vindication if not guilty. Unfortunately, the court feels this case has been so tainted that assurance of a fair trial is impossible no matter what the result. We would always look back and question 'Was it what went on in the courtroom or out of the courtroom?'

Judge Ferguson added his hope that "any dispute to this ruling be resolved in the judicial process and not again in a public forum or news media."

Reagan policy

tives for hiring and training displaced workers. Businesses would be offered tax concessions and repayment for training costs.

Fourth would be a national industrial policy to retrain workers and assist American industry "to gain world market shares." Displaced workers would be retrained so they can compete in the changing job market.

When the Urban League first presented the proposal to Congress last July, "folks thought we were crazy," Jacob said. Shortly after, the president signed the gasoline tax bill that is to create new jobs, he added.

The recently approved jobs bill, however, will not significantly decrease the unemployment problem, in Jacob's opinion, because "it doesn't measure up to the needs. It doesn't create enough jobs," he told the audience.

But such plans as the gas tax and the jobs bill indicate a philosophical shift within the Reagan Administration where specific needs of minorities and poor are concerned, he said.

Terminating the administration "very insensitive," he predicted it will be forced to change its philosophies even more, primarily because the electorate has shown it is unhappy with the president's policies.

Public unhappiness was voiced Nov. 2, 1982, when many Republicans were ousted in the elections, he said. The recent election of Chicago Mayor Harold Washington as that city's first black leader also shows that people want to see change.

The Urban League has struggled with obstacles presented by the administration and effecting change has been difficult. Minority need areas for equal employment opportunities, housing, assistance programs and family planning have been drastically cut by the administration. The Urban League has thought it made strides in those areas, only to find the administration altering its stances.

As the administration has reversed action on various of these areas, the Urban League has found itself fighting again, arguing the same old arguments on issues that were believed to be won (or at least improved upon). "Now we find ourselves fighting to hold on," he said.

A full-time Urban League staff of 25 to 30 people works in the Washington, D.C., office and various members of the league can be found "walking the halls of Congress everyday."

As a not-for-profit organization that is a viable lobbying force, the Urban League cannot, by law, actively campaign for political candidates. The group does, however, work to educate minority voters, push voter registration drives and get people to the polls.

Jacob, who has been national president since Jan. 1, 1982, sees four areas of concern for the league.

As an advocacy group, the league "speaks for the mass of black and poor people whose needs are not tended to be met." Most of these people, he said, "cannot articulate their needs" and are not heard by those in power.

As a direct service agency, the league works to assist minorities and the disadvantaged in specific need areas, like employment, housing and family planning. The Urban League operates in 36 states with 118 affiliates.

Designed in part to "build bridges between the races," the league works to form "better, stronger communities" through improved understanding.

Jacob, who is based in New York, also sees the league as forming "an open, pluralistic, integrated society" to eliminate barriers. The goal is to "build the kind of society we ought to be."

While the league primarily works with minorities and the disadvantaged, Jacob is concerned with all sectors of the population. He told the audience composed of area industry leaders, politicians, league members and guests, "Today, we have the will and the wisdom, the compassion and the power, to do right, act right and think right."

Sewer repairs

CD restriction which reserves those funds for development of older sections of the city.

Under the new labor-intensive guidelines, Schuler said, he has been assured by Madison County Chairman Nelson Hagnauer that all parts of Granite City will be eligible for the funds. "It appears we should be at the top of the priority list and it (sewer repairs) would start within 120 days," Schuler said.

Madison County must first, however, establish its own new CD guidelines to go along with the new federal housing and Urban Development regulations.

In his meeting with FEMA officials, Schuler once again tried to convince federal disaster officials that several Granite City sewer breaks can be traced back to the effects of last December's flooding. The federal agencies previously decided not to accept the county's request for flood-related disaster funds.

It now appears FEMA will be willing to help pay the city to restore the sewers to their previous condition, if the city files an independent engineer's report showing a relationship between the December flood and the city's high groundwater levels.

Those water levels have rotted joints in sewer lines, causing their collapse, according to Eric Warfield, superintendent of streets.

The council gave the mayor permission to have Sverdrup & Parcel and Associates of St. Louis, begin gathering data immediately on the link between flooding and prolonged periods of high groundwater.

The mayor believes a FEMA grant would cover at least the $100,000 already expended by the city for the breaks, but will not cover repairs that go beyond the original design of the lines.

According to Warfield, some sewer lines should have never been set so deep in the ground and to return them to their former condition would be to endanger the lines again.

Some pipes are buried 12 feet in places the groundwater is seven feet, Warfield said.

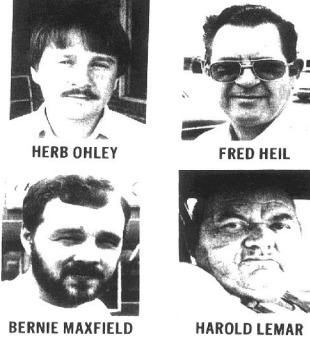

In some instances where homes and other obstacles prevent lines from being raised up, lift stations, which pump sewage from point to point, should be used, rather than merely repairing the lines.

The city could decide to ask FEMA for a lump sum to pay for the sewer breaks and then use the money to accomplish some of the updated procedures, the mayor noted.

HERB OHLEY FRED HEIL BERNIE MAXFIELD HAROLD LEMAR

Press-Record readers were asked whether they would object to working on their families working for a foreign-based corporation with factories in the United States. Their responses follow:

Herb Ohley, Alton

"No, I would have no objections to it, as long as the pay was right."

Fred Heil, Madison

"No, I think people would rather work for any corporation rather than drawing unemployment. I have a son who is unemployed now and I know he would work for anyone who would hire him."

Bernie Maxfield, Granite City

"Yes, I would have objections. Foreign companies have taken away jobs from Americans. Of course, American people bought foreign goods so that they (foreign companies) could get a foothold."

Harold Lemar, Madison

"If I was able to work, I sure would work for them. There's no way I would want to stay unemployed. People should be ready to take any kind of work, because it's the only way to keep the nation going."

Futch asks that sump pumps be allowed to flow in the streets

Gene Futch, superintendent of the Madison County Special Sewer Committee, is urging Quad-City area townships and the county to allow area sewers connected to the sewer system to discharge water from their sump pumps into the streets or septic tanks.

In letters to the township boards and to the county's Environmental Control Office, Futch explained that residents attempting to keep their basements dry have no options other than breaking one law or another. It is illegal to pump ground water into the county sewers, because the county has to pay Granite City for each gallon of sewage treated and it is senseless to pay for treatment of clean ground water. Futch says in the letters.

It also is illegal in most townships and unincorporated areas to discharge sewer pump discharges into the streets, Futch notes, calling those regulations outdated.

He says most of the regulations prohibiting discharges into the streets were written before residents had sanitary sewers and the groundwater was considered contaminated, due to septic tanks.

With sanitary sewers, the water now is considered clean and should be allowed in the streets and regular drainage channels, Futch contends.

Futch's letter, asking the town board to "suspend enforcement of your ordinances" and allowing pumping into the streets was read at Monday night's Nameoki Township Board meeting. Board members said they feel the current township ordinances only prohibit the pumping of dirty water into the streets, not sump pump discharges.

Harry Briggs, supervisor of Nameoki Township, explained that he understands the township ordinances as prohibiting only "noxious" water, which would include soapy water from clothes washing machines.

Since many township residents drain their washing machines into the sump pump holes, the discharge from the sump pump cannot legally flow into the street or ditches.

Briggs said employees of the county's sewer system have agreed to visit homes and show the residents how to separate unacceptable water sources from the sump pump hole, so the pumps will put only clean water into the streets and ditches. Persons wishing assistance in separating their clothes washers and other facilities from their sump systems may call the county's sewer office at 931-3400 to request a visit.

Nameoki funds cleanup

An agreement for the Nameoki Township Highway Department to continue the environmental cleanup program (trash and debris pickups) was approved by the town board Monday night after a change in wording suggested by Trustee W. Lee Adams.

Adams said the proposed contract called for five days a month of trash and debris pickup, when the intent was for five days per month of each. The board amended the ordinance to call for five days of trash pickup from residents per month, plus five days per month of debris pickup from township and county rights-of-way.

Mehelic and the highway department were complimented at the meeting by residents of the Miracle

The final agreement calls for the township to transfer $2,000 per month from the revenue sharing fund to the highway department for the cleanup program. Payments will be retroactive to March 1 and the program will be funded monthly through Feb. 28, 1984.

The board opened four bids for mosquito control chemicals and agreed to purchase two 55-gallon drums of one chemical for $1,750 and 200 pounds of a dry larvicide for $156, both from Clark Chemical, the lowest bidder meeting specifications.

Other bids were submitted by Crown, Navy Brand and Moore Brothers Chemical companies.

Mehelic and the highway department were complimented at the meeting by residents of the Miracle

Manor area, who said the highway workers had been very helpful in helping clean up tree limbs and debris after the May 1 tornado struck the area.

The highway workers also were commended by residents of Blue Spruce Court and Morrison Road for cleaning up drainage ditches in that area, but they noted that the water is stopping when it reaches clogged ditches in Chouteau Township. The board agreed to send a letter to Wilfred "Bud" Eberhardt, Chouteau Township highway commissioner, asking him to clear the ditches in his township which will enable the water to flow out of the Blue Spruce-Morrison area.

Legislation advances for National Foods expansion

The Transportation Committee of the Illinois Senate has advanced legislation considered essential for National Super Market to implement a $3 million expansion project at Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road.

The legislation was introduced by State Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) and cleared the Transportation Committee last week.

The legislation authorizes the state to convey its interest in a strip of ground lying along Madison Avenue, which is no longer required for highway purposes or used by the state to National upon payment by National to the state of the appraised value of the ground, $36,265.

The acquisition of this 0.333 acres by National will provide the necessary additional parking area and access which is essential to the completion of the expansion project. In announcing this action of the committee, Sen. Vadalabene pointed out the direct benefits which will result to Granite City in available jobs and increased tax revenues, which will ultimately come into the city treasury.

BARGAINING BILL

Legislation authorizing collective bargaining for public school employees was approved 13-3 by the House Elementary and Secondary Education Committee; it is sponsored by Majority Leader Jim McPike. Critics said it would lead to more teacher strikes, and assailed binding outside arbitration as leading to settlements beyond a district's financial ability.

Girls' track District meets set for this Friday

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

The weather, it seems, has just begun cooperating with high school sports schedules, but already some high school teams will begin post-season activity this weekend.

The first high school teams to begin the annual pilgrimage to the state finals are the girls' track teams. Beginning Friday, three Quad-City prep track teams will begin post-season competition at two district meets which will culminate with state competition next Friday, May 20, at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston.

Two of the Quad-City's high school girls' teams will compete in the Belleville East Regional while the other team, Madison, will compete in the Greenfield Regional. Both meets begin on at 3 p.m. Friday with preliminary competition.

In Belleville, North and South will be in 19 schools competing. Among those teams which will be present include perennial powerhouses East St. Louis Lincoln and East St. Louis Senior. With both of those teams in the same district, Steeler coach Harry Lang believes it'll be tough to qualify.

"This will be unquestionably one of the toughest districts in the state," Lang said. "It's a tough enough to qualify, but with East Side and Lincoln in there it'll really be tough."

According to IHSA guidelines, to qualify for the state meet, athletes must either finish first or second in the districts or surpass a state qualifying mark set by the IHSA.

"It's really tough to make the state qualifying time," Lang said. "Personally, I think they set the standards too high. I'll bet that there won't be 20 athletes at large to qualify because they've met the qualifying distance or time." Lang said. "Nearly all who qualify will, so because they have managed a first or second place."

Since the field will be so tough, Lang has realistically evaluated his team and believes he has two girls who may qualify for state competition. Debbie Brandt, a sophomore discus thrower, is one who Lang thinks has a good opportunity for qualifying for next weekend's statewide track meet.

In the Belleville district, Brandt is seeded fourth in the discus behind Tony Wallace of Lincoln (154-11), Teresa Johnson of Edwardsville (131-5/2), Kristi Baum of O'Fallon (119-10). Brandt's farthest throw this season has been 114-10. Since the it's unlikely that Brandt will outdistance Wallace's and Baum's efforts to earn a place qualification for state, Lang hopes she make the qualifying distance of 115 feet.

The other Steeler who may qualify for next weekend's state meet is Paula Rozyczki, North's 200 meter hurdler. Rozyczki is in the same boat that Brandt is in. Going into Friday's meet she's seeded sixth. Her best chance of qualifying for state is to meet the qualifying time of 29.8 seconds. Her best time to date is 1.7 seconds off that, 31.5.

But still, Lang is optimistic about the sophomore's chances. "We've been working on Paula's technique," Lang said. "She's increased her number of steps between hurdles from eight to nine. That way she's always leading with the same leg going over the hurdle."

Lang explained that despite the increased number of steps between hurdles, Rozyczki's approach to the hurdle is smoother, consequently her time is improving.

Granite City South's best chance at a state qualifier is distance runner Lora Wiser. Wiser is the seeded fifth in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:24.8 and fifth in the 3200 meter run with a time of 11:49. In the 800 meters her time is about four seconds off the qualifying time while her 3200 meter time is about 17 seconds off the pace. Wiser's forte, however, is the 1600 meter run, an event in which she's seeded second with a time of 5:23.3. Collinsville's Pam Quarenghi grabbed the top seed with a time of 5:13.8. State qualifying time in that event is 5:20.

Madison's chances of obtaining a state qualifier look somewhat brighter. The Trojanettes will compete against 17 teams, and assistant coach Gene Briggs said his team "has a good chance in winning the meet."

The Trojanettes strong points this year have been in their relays. And, holding true to form, they have been seeded first in the 400 meter relay, the 800 meter relay, the 800 meter medley and the 1600 meter relay.

In addition, the Trojanettes, with Gleneta Rhodes and Regina Banks representing them, are expected to fare well in the 100 meter dash and 100 meter hurdles. Last year, Banks finished fourth in the hurdling event.

Others who Briggs thinks will represent Madison well in competition at the district meet is Jerriann Ware in the 200 meters and Antoinette Compton in the open 800 meters.

Last Monday, in a meet against Althoff, the Trojanettes displayed the kind of power they have as they breezed to an 86-62 win. In doing so, Madison picked up 11 first place honors. In doing so, Banks, Ware and Rhodes were all four-time first place winners, while Compton and Dorothy Noblin were each triple winners.

McGuire Cup battles continue

The stage has been set for this Sunday's McGuire Cup Midwest Regional quarter-final. Granite City, after posting a 1-0 overtime victory over Indiana last Sunday at the Army Depot soccer fields, will meet Ohio-South at 3 p.m. EDT in Centerville, Ohio.

Last Sunday, May 8, while Granite City's entry, MHC-Mendoza, was battling Indiana, Ohio-South managed a 2-0 victory over Kentucky, qualifying it for Sunday's contest.

According to MHC coach Ruben Mendoza, his team will leave for Centerville, which is about 14 miles from Dayton, at about 6 a.m. Sunday. He estimates the team will arrive at 3 p.m., one hour before game time.

Should the Granite City squad emerge victors in Sunday's contest, they will play again on Saturday, June 4, in Bloomington, Ind., in a Midwest Regional semi-final game.

The winner of Sunday's game will play either Ohio-North or Wisconsin in that semi-final game next month. Ohio-North received a bye into this weekend's contest, whereas Wisconsin and Michigan are still battling it out in the north.

Sunday, June 5, has been scheduled as the Midwest Regional championship. That, too, will be played in Bloomington.

The winner of the Midwest Regional, which is one of four regions nationwide, will play for the national championship on Saturday, June 18, in Omaha, Neb.

All games begin at 1 p.m.

the game winner.

In the early going, South took the lead, but, in the middle innings, North caught and later went ahead in their half of the eighth inning.

In short, the game was well played by both teams. Fine individual performances were turned in by Puhse, who scored each time she went to the plate. Sykes who was three for five on the afternoon, Lisa Lilley of North who, too, was three for five, and Jill Werth of North was two for four from the plate.

The victory sweeps the pairing this year for South and improved its season record to 4-8. The Steelers are 1-5.

Warriors fall to Wood River; down Comanches

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

Lately, Granite City South's baseball team has had either strong hitting and weak pitching or strong pitching and weak hitting.

South suffered from the latter in Tuesday's 3-1 loss to Wood River at Wood River. However, the Warriors put everything together at Cahokia Monday to win their final Gateway East Conference game. South defeated the Comanches 8-5.

Against the Oilers, South had a strong pitching effort from starter Tom Newton and relievers Vince Mitchell and Dominic Griffin. The only problem for the Warriors was that they could only get five hits off Oilier pitcher Dennis Krieb.

"We got good pitching, but we needed to get some hits," South Coach John Modica said. "Their pitcher was all over the place, and those kind of pitchers are harder to hit because you never know where the ball is going to go."

South's only run came in the first inning without the aid of any hits. Mitchell was hit by a pitch, went to second on a passed ball, and scored on an error by Wood River catcher Steve Burk.

The Warriors didn't get a hit until the fifth inning, though South was able to get three consecutive hits by Mark Vanyo, Phil Dudak and Newton. The Warriors were unable to score. Vanyo was thrown out at the plate on Newton's single.

In the seventh inning, South loaded the bases with two singles by Tom Stegemeier and Darrell Elmore and a walk to Vanyo. The Warriors grounded into a double play to end the rally and the game.

Meanwhile, Wood River scored two runs in the third when John Pearson hit a single and scored on Shane Gibb's triple. Gibb scored on Tracy Roe's single. The Oilers' other run came in the fourth when Scott Downing walked and scored on Phil Tripp's single.

"We had the pitching, we just couldn't get any hits," Modica said.

On the other hand, South got the hits against Cahokia.

The Comanches upset both Edwardsville and Collinsville last week, but the Warriors brought Cahokia back down to earth Monday by putting the hits together in the middle innings.

The Warriors picked up 11 hits which allowed them to get back on the winning track. Prior to the win, South lost seven games in a row.

South gradually turned the power on. In the third inning, Dudak reached on an error and scored on Stegemeier's single.

The bats really started to roar in the fourth inning. Randy Thurman opened with a triple and scored on Elmore's double. Vanyo drove Elmore in with a single and scored on a three base error on the play.

The fifth inning was the climax for the Warriors. Stegemeier hit and double, and Mitchell drove him home with a triple. John Linhart then blasted a two-run homer to clear the bases for a while. Tom Adamits walked, stole second and scored on Thurman's double.

Vanyo took the victory for the Warriors. He pitched six innings, gave up

ACROBATICS. Granite City South shortstop Randy Thurman had to do a flip to tag out Wood River runner Tracy Roe, but Thurman managed to tag Roe on the shoulders for the out. The throw to Thurman came from catcher Jim Moulden.

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South managed back-to-back triples in the eighth inning of last Monday's Warrior-Steeler softball game to tie and then to win the last softball game between the two schools.

Granite City South was trailing 7-4 going into the bottom of the eighth inning when lead-off batter Ann Puhse tripled to left-centerfield. Karen Sykes also tripled to the same area scoring Puhse to tie the game.

Steel pitcher Monica Fanning was then able to get Vicki Smith to fly out to left field, but Theresa Soelner reached on a fielder's choice, scoring Sykes for the tie game.

Lancers shut out faltering Steelers; win 8-0

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

BELLEVIEWE — Granite City North baseball coach Bob Stegemeier knew the last two weeks of the regular season would be tough for the Steelers, but no one would have ever thought things would be this rough.

Hitting has been one of the things the Steelers have done consistently well this season, but suddenly, the bats have grown silent. North picked up only four hits Wednesday in its 8-0 loss to Belleville East.

"We've got to get our hitting going quickly or the end of the season's going to be awfully long for us," Stegemeier said. "We got to hit the ball against the good teams, or we're going to lose."

North has a rough schedule. On Saturday, North hosts O'Fallon, which is considered the area's best baseball team, in a noon double-header. On Monday, North plays at Triad in a 4 p.m. game, and on Tuesday, North travels to Belleville Althoff for a 4 p.m. game. That game will determine if North will share the Gateway East Conference championship.

Belleville East's Carl Sudja allowed only four hits and walked only one batter in his seven innings of work. Stegemeier thought North could have done much better.

Sudja mixed his fast ball and his curve ball well and kept the Steelers off balance most of the game. North either hit high pop flies or hit grounders in the infield.

"I don't think he's that good of a pitcher because O'Fallon hit him pretty hard. If we're a good hitting team, and we have been most of the year, we have to be able to get the hits and the right times," Stegemeier said.

When North did get hits, they went to waste. Daren DeFew led off the game with a single but was thrown out trying to steal second. In the second inning, Terry Rujawitz had an easy triple, but he missed Stegemeier's signal to stop at third. Rujawitz was out easily at the plate.

North also hit into a double play in the fifth after Kevin Patterson's single, and stranded a runner in the seventh after a base hit.

"When we did hit the ball hard, it was usually at somebody. We made a lot of mistakes today," Stegemeier said.

The Lancers jumped all over North starter Brian Levin. East scored three runs in the first inning and two in the second, partially due to mental errors on North's part.

East also added three more runs in the fifth inning off a walk and three straight singles off relief pitcher Patterson.

The Steelers are 14-5 for the season and have lost their last two games.

GC North 000 040 4 0 3

GC North — DeFew 1-3, Tritschub 1-2, Rujawitz 1-3 BB, Patterson 1-3. LP-B. Levin IN-3 R-5 ER-5 H-750-0 BB-1.

B East — Mathison 1-4 BB, Fink 2-3 RBI, Going 1-1 RBI, Goldschmidt 1-4, Sudja 2-3 BB RBI-2, Lapka 2-3 RBIs, Sudduth 1-3, Callahan 2-2 BB. WP-Sudja IN-7 R-0 ER-4 H-450-4 BB-1.

North made one last stab to come back in the seventh. Sheik reached on an error, and with two out in the inning, Hessler drove him home with a single. Levin got a single to keep North's hopes alive, but Keith Coakley struck out to end the game.

Alton ends Steeler winning streak at 12 games

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

ALTON — All good things have to come to an end, but Granite City North baseball coach Bob Stegemeier wished the Steelers' winning streak could have ended in a better way.

Alton took advantage of some North miscues to defeat the Steelers 7-6. Steve Lewis and Clark Community College Monday. The loss ended North's winning streak at 12 games.

North also had problems with the umpires. The Steelers were on the losing end of two bang-bang plays at the first the sixth and seventh innings, and the home plate umpire ejected Steve Tritschub in the seventh inning for talking back to him on a called second strike.

"We don't blame the umpires for the loss," Stegemeier said. "We made some poor fielding plays and our starting pitching didn't come through. We battled back, but our mistakes lost the game."

After Tritschub's ejection and the second close play in which Terry Rujawitz was called out, North coaches argued with the umpires. Alton Coach Felix Macias hoped Stegemeier didn't have hard feelings about the game.

Nevertheless, the Steelers lost the game in the third and fourth innings because of various mistakes.

A high sun blinded Rujawitz on Jeff Maher's fly ball to right field to open the third. Jeff Jublin and Dan Hopkins added singles to load the bases. Tim Bennett's double, which was just out of the reach of center fielder Dave Sheik, drove in two runs, and Mike Saaf's home run made three in three runs.

Alton added runs in two runs in the fourth, both unearned.

North scored one run in the first inning on Tritschub's home run, one in the second when Sheik scored on Tritschub's single, and one in the fourth when Rod Hessler scored on a grounder by Benny Nolan.

In the fifth inning, Sheik scored on Hessler's single, and Rujawitz scored on an error by Bennett on Brian Levin's grounder.

North made one last stab to come back in the seventh. Sheik reached on an error, and with two out in the inning, Hessler drove him home with a single. Levin got a single to keep North's hopes alive, but Keith Coakley struck out to end the game.

Coolidge wins Jr. High track meet

GRANITE CITY — The weather couldn't have been much worse during the 21st Annual Granite City Junior High Track Meet held last Tuesday.

A drizzling rain inhibited what otherwise might have been record-breaking performances, but Coolidge still put things all together, winning the girls' and seventh grade competition.

The Braves put together 67 points in the girls' competition, overshadowing Prather with 34 and Grigsby with 25.

In boys' competition, Coolidge won the seventh grade competition with 80 points, followed by Grigsby with 46 and Prather with 22 points.

In eighth grade competition, Grigsby's boys outdistanced everyone, winning with 87 points, followed by Coolidge with 33½ points and Prather with 27½ points. Collectively, Coolidge was first, Grigsby was second and Prather was third.

Due to rain and poor weather conditions, only one meet record was broken. Gary Crane of Grigsby set a new record in the long jump by jumping 18-feet-6½. Crane was one of three triple winners in the afternoon.

Other triple winners are Heather Crane and Steve Terziski both of whom are from Coolidge.

Segobiano signs with Western Illinois

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor

Tony Segobiano, a sweeper on Granite City South's 1982 Illinois High School championship soccer team, has recently signed a national letter of intent to attend Western Illinois University this fall.

The signing terminates an aggressive campaign by various colleges and universities to sign the Warrior kicker. Those other institutions which sought to sign Segobiano included Rockhurst College of Kansas City, University of Kansas-Milwaukee, the University of Alabama-Huntsville and Lindenwood College in St. Louis.

Segobiano said the determining factor in his accepting the full scholarship with the Leathernecks was its computer science curriculum. Although, he admitted, that since three other Granite City soccer athletes—two of whom were soccer teammates at Granite City South—have previously signed with Western had at least some effect on his decision.

"It'll be nice being there and playing with Barry (Grote) and John (Menendez)," Segobiano said. "But, too, Western plays a good schedule and they seem to be genuinely interested in rebuilding its soccer program."

The other Granite City athlete to sign with Western is North's Brian Levin.

Segobiano, a varsity member on the Warrior soccer squad for four years at South, made three trips to the state championships: 1979, 1980, and 1982.

A starter for three years on the squad, he was a left wing fullback, a wing halfback, and a sweeper fullback.

As a member of three championship teams, Segobiano accumulated several awards and honors. Last year he was a member of the Tournament of Champions All-Tournament Team, the Granite City South All-Regional Team, the Belleville Area Team and, his biggest honor this year, he was named to the State Soccer Tournament Team.

In 1981, he was one of three team captains—an honor he shared with Dave Paz and Greg White. Last year, Segobiano was again selected as a team captain, honors he shared with Bill Hency and Barry Grote.

Segobiano estimates he's been playing soccer for about 12 years. He credits his father, Richard, (who currently referees IHSA and NCAA soccer, with much of his success in the game.

"My dad got me interested in soccer at a young age. He helped me develop my game and basic strategy."

But even with his father's help and eight years of soccer under his belt by the time he started high school, Segobiano admits that he didn't know so much that he couldn't learn more from Warrior Coach Gene Baker.

"Coach Baker's a strategy expert. He teaches soccer the way it's meant to be taught in its purest sense," Segobiano said. "Tactically, I think he's one of the best coaches in the area. It seems as though he always finds some way of pulling off a win."

Few people are happier than Segobiano that the Granite City's Board of Education has decided to rehire Baker for the coming year.

"Sure, I'm glad Coach Baker is coming back next year. It'll be great to stop in and see him when I'm in town," Segobiano said. The Warrior kicker said he was particularly looking forward to the soccer reunion held during the holidays for Granite City South soccer alumni. The gathering is an annual reunion in which Warrior soccer players from the past and present gather at South between Christmas and New Year's.

Segobiano is the son of Richard and Betty Segobiano.

Madison hurlers down Viking in pitching duel

MADISON — A 7-3 victory over St. Paul. It was a fitting end to their regular season.

Wednesday afternoon, against three St. Paul Viking pitchers, Madison scattered 12 hits while allowing the Vikings just three. It was the Trojans' fourth victory in 13 outings this year.

Again, the story was pitching. Madison's Fred Smith picked up his third win of the season, but not before he walked four batters in the sixth inning giving St. Paul its first run of the afternoon. Smith was also responsible for putting on two other Vikings who scored as a result of reliever Robert Robinson passes.

The Trojans jumped on top in the first inning as Darnell Marshall singled, stole second and third and then scored as Viking catcher Mark Pacette threw to second trying to catch Nathan Young stealing.

Madison picked up another pair of runs in the third inning, to lead 3-0, as Young singled to centerfield, stole second and then scored as Robinson singled to leftfield. Madison's sixth batter, Patrick Wilson tripled in Robinson with a smash to centerfield. St. Paul's hurler, Steve Milton, put an end to the inning as he got Robert Bishop to groundout to shortstop.

In the fourth inning, Madison made it 4-0 as third baseman, Jim Smith, picked up his first hit of the season, a homer, over Jeff Schulte's head in centerfield.

Victor Valentine and Marshall followed suit with doubles before Viking coach Ron Sterns sent in reliever Mike Riffel.

Following an uneventful fifth inning, Trojan pitching faltered, walking in three runs before Madison second baseman Marshall alertly turned a double play to retire the side.

Jeff Hogue of 1734 Grand Ave. Granite City, became the first junior league bowler in the 25-year history of Bowland Lanes to roll a 300 game Saturday morning.

Hogue, a 15-year-old sophomore at Granite City South High School, also rolled the highest series with a 759 score in three games. He rolled 180 in the first game, 279 in the second game and 300 in the third game. He rolled the series in the league play in the senior division of the junior league.

Hogue, his parents, Terry and Rosemary Hogue, and his brother all own averages over 200.

Still leading 4-3, Madison got back those three runs in its half of the sixth as Valentine singled, Marshall reached on catcher's interference and Young reached on a pass.

Then, borrowing a page from the Madison playbook, St. Paul pitcher Steve Todt walked Browley, forcing in Valentine from third.

With the bases loaded, Robinson singled up the middle, scoring Marshall and Young to give the Trojans a four-run lead once again.

Todt, then collected himself and retired the side. But it did little good as the Vikings were unable to muster any last-inning offensive giving the Trojans their fourth win of the season.

Hogue rolls 300 game

Steeler, Warrior net teams win big matches

Overall, it was a very productive week for Granite City High tennis teams.

Granite City North's Steelers picked up a pair of victories, one on Monday and the other on Tuesday, as they defeated Jerseyville Monday 6-0 and Bethalto Tuesday 5-4. The victories improve the Steeler record to 5-9 on the season.

Next week, the Steelers meet Cahokia, Alton and Edwardsville on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday respectively.

North's sister school, South, split a pair of matches this week, but in the process picked up an impressive victory.

Tuesday, against perennial powerhouse O'Fallon, the Warriors lost 6-1. But, South's first singles player, John Menendez defeated O'Fallon's Mike Davis 6-4, 6-1. Davis is rated third in the Metro-East area high school tennis circuit.

On Wednesday, the Warriors reversed the tables on Roxana, winning 7-0 to boost their season record to 10-5.

Monday South travels to Belleville East and Wednesday to Collinsville District tennis action begins next Friday, May 20. Granite City South will host the tournament again this year.

REQUEST FOR SEALED BIDS

Bids will be received by the Bi-State Development
Agency of the Missouri-
Illinois Metropolitan District for Paving and Wearing Surface for the Agency's Transit Operations.
Each bid shall be made in accordance with conditions and specifications as outlined in Sealed Bid 1078 furnished for that purpose. Copies of the plans, specifications and other bid documents may be obtained at the Purchasing Department, 707 North First Street, St. Louis, Missouri
63102.

The Bi-State Development
Agency hereby notifies all bidders that in response to a contract entered into pursuant to this invitation to bid, bid advertisement or solicitation, minority enterprises will be afforded full opportunity to submit bids in response, and will not be subject to discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, age, physical handicap or national origin in consideration for awards. Bidders will be required to comply with all applicable equal opportunity policies and procedures established by the Bi-State Development Agency.
Bidders must be qualified with the Illinois
Human Rights Commission,
Public Contracts Division, 32
West Randolph, Chicago, Illinois 60601, prior to the due date. This may be accomplished by submitting a completed Form PC-1 to the Illinois Human Rights Commission for prequalification prior to the due date.
These forms are furnished with all specifications.

The Bi-State Development
Agency solicits and encourages minority business enterprise participation with regard to this project.
MBE's will be afforded full consideration on their responses and will not be subject to discrimination.
Respondents will be required to comply with the Agency's Minority Business Program goal requirements where applicable.
Bi-State reserves the right to accept any bid or reject any and all bids on such a basis as the Agency deems to be in its best interest, subject to regulations governing DOT assisted transit purchases which require this Agency to award to the lowest responsive and responsible bidder. The Agency reserves the right to change quantity requirements, technical specifications, bid opening date, etc. These changes will be transmitted to known perspective bidders by written addenda.

Bids will be received at the Purchasing Department of
the Bi-State Development
Agency, 707 North First
Street, St. Louis, Missouri
63102, until 2:00 p.m., St.
Louis time on May 26, 1983, at which time they will be opened and read publicly.
Any bid received after the time referred to above will not be considered and will be returned to the addressee unopened.

A pre-bid conference will be held for all interested parties on May 17, 1983 at 10:00 a.m. in the Purchasing Conference Room, 707 North
First Street, St. Louis,
Missouri, 63102.

MADISON COUNTY
ZONING ORDINANCE
APPEALS NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the above named Board of Appeals, established under the Madison County Zoning Ordinance, will hold a Public Hearing on the 26th day of May, 1983, at the time and place as noted below for the purpose of hearing testimony for and/or against the following proposed change in the above named Ordinance.

At 11:15 A.M. on the petition of Robert J. Forhan,
Owner of Record, and Abdul Razzag, Purchaser/Leasee,
Request is made for a Special Use Permit on the property. The property is currently zoned R-1 and the application is for a Special Use Permit for a proposed, one-story, office medical clinic, as is partially demonstrated by the drawings submitted with this request. The nature of proposed traffic would be patients visiting the clinic and might run as high as 50 patients per day visiting the clinic. As indicated on the drawings, the clinic would allow approximately forty (40) parking spaces and will provide ingress and egress on both bordering streets.
The building would be an aesthetically beautiful one-story structure with grass and shrubbery in the front. It will be typical of other office buildings located a few lots
North on Maryville Rd., i.e., Dentist's Office and Bob Barton Real Estate Company.

Known as Lots No. #4 and #5 in Northland Estates, a subdivision in the Northwest Quarter of Section 4, Township 3 North,
Range 9 West of the Third Principal Meridian as shown in the Plat thereof in the Recorder's Office of Madison County, Illinois in Plat Book 36
Page 59 and commonly known as the corner and adjacent lot on the Northwest corner of the intersection of Maryville
Road and Clinton Drive near Granite City and Maryville School.

The hearing will be held at the above described site.

JOHNNY'S FUNLAND
Dear Friend:
I would like to take this opportunity to invite you, your organization, and friends to join in the fun at JOHNNY'S FUNLAND!
We can provide your private party with 2 1/2 hours of mini golf and arcade games. We have a full bar, a DJ, and a professional band. We have and beverages and have a real party! The party includes all the golf and video games you can play in 2 1/2 hours all for one price.
We will open May 1st and our hours start at 5:30 p.m. Starting June 1st our summer hours start at 2:00 p.m. Monday - Friday and 12:00 noon on weekends. Our private party hours are 10:00 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.
We have 2 - 18 hole mini golf courses, over 12 different video games, over 8 different pinball machines, 3 football tables and a juke box that you can dance to.
I know that you can see the value of this kind of entertainment with today's inflationary prices. It's about the price of a movie. We are very proud of the remodeling and a totally screened in video room.
Please give us a call for further details at 911-0221. I'm sure you are going to be pleasantly surprised when you visit us. We're here for your fun and enjoyment! Look forward to meeting each and every one of you.

Majewski is named campaign chairman

Tom Majewski, Assistant Works Manager American Steel Foundries, has accepted the position as the 1983 Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign chairman.

A native of Evanston, Ill., he now resides in Glen Carbon. He is a graduate of Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, where he received his bachelor of science degree in business administration. Post graduate courses were taken at the Management Center of Cambridge, Mass., and Washington University's School of Continuing Education.

Majewski is past chairman of the budget and allocations committee and serves on the Tri-Cities Area United Way executive board. During the 1982 United Way campaign, Tom served as vice chairman under Roger Higgins, the 1982 campaign chairman.

Majewski's activities include many other civic and industrial organizations, including: chairman of the American Fourtyman's Society, St. Louis Chapter; past secretary and currently chairman of the Steel Division of the American Foundrymen's Society National Organization; Southwestern Illinois Industrial Association; Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce; Steel Founders Society of America; National Association of Accountants and Amvets.

In announcing the appointment of Majewski as 1983 United Way general campaign chairman, Bill Terrell, president, remarked on the efforts and achievements of the entire campaign team during the 1982 United Way Campaign. "I believe Tom Majewski will again lead this community in a successful 1983 campaign," Terrell said.

Air Force medal to Sgt. Rodgers

The Air Force Commendation Medal (first oak leaf cluster) has been awarded to Staff Sergeant Charles E. Rodgers of Granite City for serving from December 1979 to November 1982 as an electric specialist, 20th Aircraft Maintenance Branch, 601st Aircraft Generation Squadron, 601st Tactical Control Wing, Sembach Air Base, Germany.

He spent many hours developing a technical order training course which was upgraded technical orders throughout the maintenance complex.

He also was selected on numerous occasions to recover disabled aircraft throughout the United States Air Forces in Europe.

He graduated from Granite City High School in June 1972. Sgt. Rodgers is now attached to the 97th Field Maintenance Squadron at Blytheville Air Force Base, Ark. and is the son of Mrs. Edith Campbell and Frank Rodgers Jr. of Granite City.

PERFORMANCE ON BLACK FREEDOM

Unity Ensemble of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will present the "Mighty Mountain Looms Before Me and I Can't Stop Now." Friday through Sunday.

"Mighty Mountain" is a collection of works that presents a historical perspective of blacks' fight for justice and freedom, according to Ralph Greene, Unity Ensemble director.

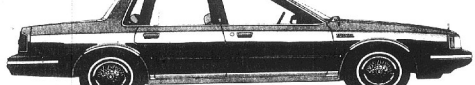

All performances start at 8 p.m. in the East St. Louis Development Corporation (ESLDEC) Community Theater, 3706 Caseyville Ave.

"Mighty Mountain" is a total theater experience incorporating poetry, song and dance, he said.

For ticket information, interested persons in contact Ralph Greene or Bonnie Harmon at 271-3000, extension 58.

83 CUTLASS CERA

LEASE IT
$199.00* per month

WHY SHOULD YOU LEASE FROM B.B.B.?

Different people lease for different reasons. Some of the most prevalent reasons are...

NO "DOWN PAYMENT"

A security deposit plus first and last payment in advance usually suffices.

LEASING FREES YOUR CASH

LEASING DOES NOT USE UP CREDIT

PAY ONLY FOR WHAT YOU USE

You pay only for the portion of the vehicle's useful life consumed during the term of the lease.

SIMPLIFIED TAX RECORDS

CONVENIENCE

Not only do we take care of all license, title and sales tax fees, we can also include maintenance extended service policies and insurance all in one monthly payment. You know exactly what your monthly car expense will be for the term of the lease.

YOUR CHOICE

We can lease you any make and model of domestic and imported car or truck available.
